Pupil of the Week
Nursery	Adelia H	Adelia has been trying really hard this week. She has been showing all her friends how to sit nicely on the carpet and listen carefully. I have spotted Adelia saying kind things to her friends and this has made me really happy. Keep up the good work Adelia!

RM	Harley L	Harley has been listening carefully and sharing his ideas with others on the carpet. He always has a big smile and is beaming with pride when he works hard on his new learning. Well done Harley!
RC	Sean M	Sean has been really engaged with our learning this week! He is quite an historian and has been proud to share his historical knowledge with other members of the class during our carpet discussions. Keep it up Sean – you could have a great career ahead of you!
1F	Maisie B	Maisie has been working hard all term. She is trying her best and her hard work does not go unnoticed. Keep up the good work Maisie! We are all very proud of you.
1B	Saskia C-W	Saskia has been working incredibly hard in phonics this week, and Mrs Orr has noticed a big difference in her reading. Keep working hard Saskia!
2T	Melody B	Melody is a ray of sunshine in our class. She has made us extremely proud over the last few weeks as she has become an amazing mathematician through her hard work and determination. Keep up the brilliant work Melody!
2PR	Rose Oliver-M	Rose has worked incredibly hard this week and has produced some fabulous work. Her setting description in English is particularly good and Rose is really thinking about how to engage the reader with her writing. Keep up the good work Rose.

3S	Azra D	Azra is a fantastic example of what it is to be a Moorside pupil. Her attitude to learning is amazing and she never stops pushing herself to achieve the next challenge. This week Azra has been using some brilliant history vocabulary in planning her writing and I can't wait to see the end result. Keep it up!
3F	Daisy P	Daisy has been working really hard in her math. She has a fantastic attitude to learning and puts in 100% even when things are a little tricky. She brightens up my day with her big smile and happy attitude. Daisy had been really helpful this week for Mrs. Power. So proud of you, Keep it up!
Reader of the week: London B London has been working his socks off on reading plus recently, and has tried his best to read the text carefully to get every question right. Your concentration is really paying off London, keep it up!
4R	Areeba T	Areeba has been a magnificent pupil this week. From her English writing, to her dedicated Math's work, Areeba demonstrates an eagerness to learn. Well done, Areeba, keep it up!
4A	Mia C- G	Mia has produced some excellent pieces of work in recent weeks. The quality of her newspaper report in English was excellent and her reasoning and problem solving skills in Maths are also of a consistently high standard. Mia is an enthusiastic, hard-working, well-liked member of our class. Well done and keep up the hard work!
Reader of the week: Rana S – Rana has made excellent progress on Reading Plus this year. Her comprehension and fluency skills are going from strength-to-strength. Keep up the great work, Rana.

5T	Sophia C-W	Sophia is a very hardworking individual in year 5. She can be quite pensive and ensures she is always proud of her work. She works well independently and collaborates well with others. Keep it up, Sophia!
5C	Keris C	For really trying hard to apply herself in all areas of her learning. Keris has written a brilliant non-chronological report this week and has impressed the class with historical reasoning during class discussions. Keep it up Keris!
Reader of the week: Jesse L has been doing some great reading during guided reading sessions and makes sure he changes his book regularly to keep challenging himself. Well done, Jesse!
6C	Nicole H	Another fantastic week for Nicole. She is the embodiment of what a Moorside child should be. Aspirational, understanding, collaborative and (rightly) proud of herself and her work. She is a wonderful member of our class and a role model to others.
6I/P	Lacey-L L	Lacey-Lou's learning behaviours are outstanding. She shows resilience when approaching new challenges and takes pride in her work. With a new found confidence, Lacey-Lou is contributing more ideas to class discussion and pushing herself out of her comfort zone.
Reader of the week: Cash Johnson-Davies Munagorri has shown great focus during in-class reading sessions and is always enthusiastic when asked to read aloud or share his book with a spot check. In addition, he enhances his learning at home by consistently using Reading Plus. Great work Cash, keep it up!
