

English:

Write a letter home as a WWII evacuee. Give details about where you have been sent to and what life is like. Try to include character thoughts and subordinate clauses.

PE:

Come up with your own fitness circuit. Think about how to include a range of motions that requires the whole body to move. Can you link these exercises to Sports Day events?

History:

Research some real-life stories of evacuees and present your findings as a poster or PowerPoint. Try to include details about the person and any other interesting details about them and their experiences as an evacuee.

PHSE:

Discuss the following with someone:

- Which relationships are important to you?
- What do people in your community do to help support you or the school?

Maths:

Practice your multiplication tables ready for our MTC next term. Use some of the games on Purple Mash which have been set and play games on www.timestables.co.uk

DT:

Create a recipe for a product you could have in a British afternoon tea. Do not forget to include measurements and take a photo of your finished product once you have made it.

French:

Draw a picture of an animal and label its appearance and personality using the words and phrases we learnt.

Computing:

Use editing software such as befunky.com, edit a photograph of yourself to make you look like an evacuee. Think about how to add layers and to change the colours in the photograph.

Science:

Draw a diagram to show how sound travels and how we can hear different sounds. Write a description to explain how we can use soundproofing to reduce the sounds we make and why it is effective.

RE:

Write a detailed promise about your commitment to something you enjoy doing. For example: "I promise to work hard for my football team."
