

Moredon Primary & Nursery School

Your learning journey to new horizons

Home School Agreement

Welcome to Moredon Primary and Nursery School, we are so pleased that you have chosen for your child to join our school community. As a Values Based school we believe that a strong partnership between home and school will ensure your child receives the very best education. We ask that all parents and children sign the promises below before they start at Moredon Primary and Nursery School.

As a school we promise to:

Do our best to make you feel welcome and needed at school, and to give you every opportunity to be involved in our teaching and learning programmes. We will give you regular information about your child's progress, and we will give you early notice of any concerns we may have about learning, behaviour or relationships. We will seek in every way to give your child an excellent education, both academic and social.

We aim to always:

- set high standards, and provide a quality education for your child
- provide quality teaching and learning opportunities which will support the individual needs of your child
- prepare your children for their future through values based education
- provide a safe, caring, stimulating environment, where your child feels valued as an individual
- encourage your child to achieve their potential in all aspects of school life
- care for your child as a valued member of the school community, irrespective of gender, race or religion.
- maintain a code of conduct which fosters a caring, secure and disciplined environment
- provide a broad and balanced curriculum for all children
- provide children with appropriate tasks to do at home
- meet with parents to discuss individual concerns
- keep parents and guardians informed about any changes in the policies of the school, and about general school matters
