

Maths homework is available through the 'Maths with Parents' website.

Reading is also important - four times per week will improve reading speed and comprehension.

Learning and Communication Research and present your ideas	It's all in the name Who was Alfred the Great... and why was he so GREAT!? Create a comic strip to explain.	Surprise package Imagine you are an archaeologist who has dug up a box of Anglo-Saxon (or Viking) artefacts – what could be found inside?	Time traveller Do you think you would have liked to have lived during the Anglo-Saxon period? Explain your reasons why/why not.	What a picture! Using as many materials as you can, create a collage of your favourite place. It could be the beach, the park, your garden or even your bedroom.
Creativity and Imagination Use your artistic and creative ideas to make something	I'll give you two turnips for a parsnip Create a poster to help someone convert measurements for length, volume and weight.	How to train your dragon Design a dragon's head for a Viking ship's prow.	Time bandits Create a timeline of events from British History – it should include the Anglo-Saxons and Vikings - the other important dates and events are up to you!	Delicious Write a recipe for a Viking raid! i.e. You will need: 1 seasoned longboat, 500 of the finest, fighting fit Viking warriors....
Personal Development Helping you to prepare for the future	Wish you were here List your top tips for staying safe in the sun.	I can do it! To help you in the future and to support your family, plan to make your own bed every day and tidy your bedroom once.	"What an achievement!" Produce a leaflet explaining between 5 and 10 things you have achieved during your time at home.	What I would like to be Take time to think about what job you would like in the future. Write down the skills you will need.
Collaboration Work with others to produce something great	Quiz Master Make a quiz about Anglo-Saxons or Vikings.	We love a limerick Can you create a long limerick with your family? Each person has to write their own verse.	Ahoy there! Create a Viking longboat and think carefully about its name.	Knowing me, knowing you Create a poster about you and your friend, celebrating what is similar and different about you.
Citizenship Doing good and helping others	That was tasty. Find a new recipe and make something to cheer someone up. Could it be a biscuit with a smile on it?	'You gotta friend in me' Create a diagram/picture that celebrates the people you know who have a different belief, culture or heritage to you.	Recycle! Do your bit to help the environment either at home or when you are out and about. Recycling green waste into compost makes for a wonderful home for a whole range of useful insects, bugs and organisms.	Thank you Thank you! We have done this before, but it is probably time to do it again. Make a thank you postcard for someone who deserves it. It could be a neighbour, an NHS worker. Your mum, dad, brother or sister.
