

Tuesday 30th June:

Good morning Bee and Ladybird Class! Challenge yourself to do something kind for a friend today – they might be missing you!

Daily reading	We hope you enjoyed last week's book, ' The Princess and the Wizard ' by Julia Donaldson. This week's book is ' Zog ' by Julia Donaldson. You can access it here: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=frA8PS8rfh8
Daily counting	Creating subtraction number sentences – Put two pieces of numicon on top of each other to make a subtraction number sentence. How many different number sentences can you make? Can you make a number sentence that subtracts more than one number?
Tricky words	Please take time to learn your tricky words. These can be found in your learning pack that we have sent home. Concentrate on the words that you know you find tricky and choose a few words to practise each day. Here are some activities you may not have tried yet. Perhaps you could do one a day this week. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Peg the tricky words on a line. Unpeg them and put them in a basket when you know them</li> <li>- Put the tricky words in a box. Rummage around and pick out a tricky word to read</li> <li>- Write the tricky words on a label and stick them to a toy car.</li> <li>- Draw some parking spaces with the matching tricky word on a piece of paper. Drive in the matching tricky word!</li> <li>- Write the tricky word in lots of different sizes! - Chalk the tricky word on paper, chalkboard or paving</li> </ul>
Daily Maths	These activities and ideas are based around the book 'Zog' By Julia Donaldson. Here is the link if you don't have access to the book - https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=9_LmS3q4E6k Make your own rosette reward. Zog's star is a special one with a backing like a rosette! He really is the best in the show. Make your own for yourself or something special for your family. Think about how proud Zog looked and felt when he got his star. What would your star be for? Who has been a star in your house or your school. Could you make a reward in another shape? All you need is some paper and some scissors and something to make it a nice colour. Think about the shapes in your house you could draw around to help you. How could you design your reward to make it different to everyone else's?
Daily English/Phonics	This week, we are going to have a focus on Common Exception Words in sentences. Today's tricky words are no, to and the. See how many different sentences you can write using these tricky words. Writing: This week's book is 'Zog' by Julia Donaldson. Our English Writing is going to be based on this book this week. Design your own dragon! Label the different parts of the dragon. To extend yourself, can you think of any adjectives to describe the dragon?
Healthy Me	Can you write a letter to someone special explaining why you love them?
Problem of the Day	Draw a Lego mini version of yourself. What superpowers have you got?
The activities below are supplementary and can be used to further extend learning opportunities whilst at home.

EYFS Word Lists	Look in your Reading Log and find all of the spellings for EYFS. How many of these can you learn? Can you write a sentence using the words?
Useful websites	Please see the useful websites list.

Well done for trying all of these areas of learning. Please can I ask that your parent sends a few lines in an email to let me know what you have completed today.
