

The Case of the Missing Stormtrooper

Mr. Clark is devastated, his Stormtrooper has been stolen!

Ms Kennaugh puts a call out to all Newbridge pupils and their friends to search for Mr. Clark's Stormtrooper and find out who stole it.

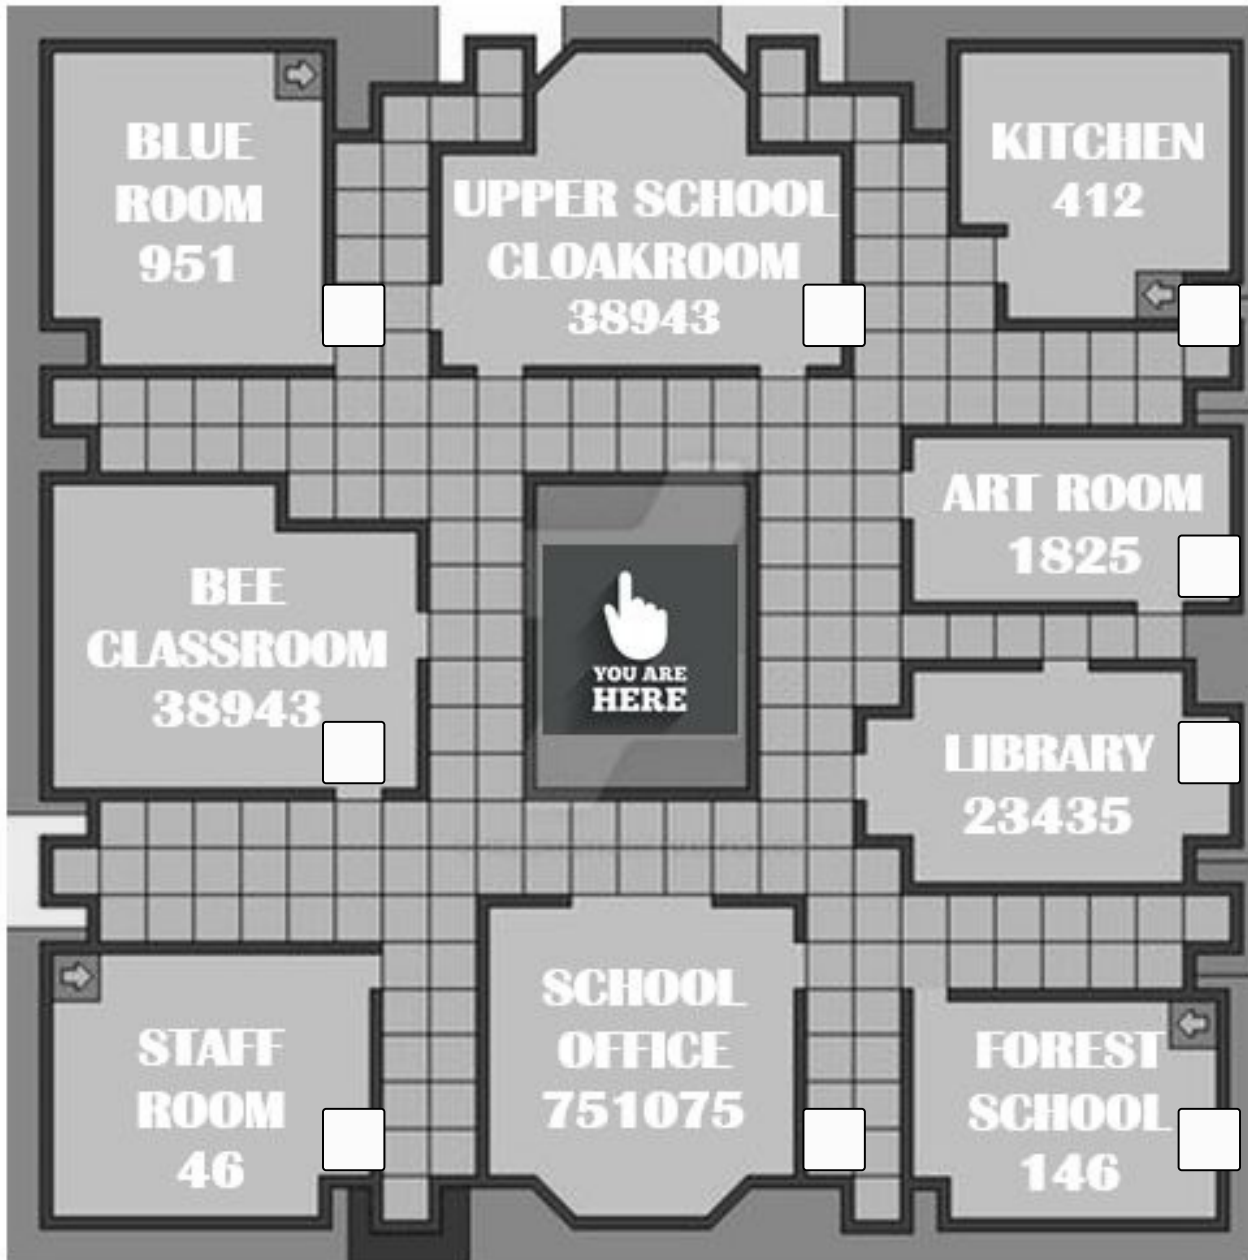

Can you help?

The route is just under 3 miles long and should take 2 hours.

Good luck detectives.

The Locations

You will need your brain, a pen, paper and the suspect and location sheets.

Follow the link to the google form on a mobile device.

Let the google form guide you along the trail and help you answer the questions to uncover the identity of the thief and the room where the Stormtrooper can be found.

Remain focused at all times. You will need your wits about you to "stay on target".

May the force be with you detectives!
