Why are iPads more fun than my grandparent's old toys?

Key Vocabulary:
blackboard	A blackboard would be seen in almost every classroom in the 1960s. Today we have screens or an interactive whiteboard.
chalk	Chalk was used by teachers to write on the blackboard. It was mainly white but there many colours of chalk.
nit nurse	The name given to the nurse who came to school to check hair for lice.
Marbles	A popular game with marbles, many children came to school with a pocket full of marbles.
Skipping	A very popular game in the 1960's.

Sticky Knowledge facts:

- A family tree is a type of chart or diagram representing generations of families and how they are linked.

- The invention of talking toys, video game consoles and tablets brought technology to the forefront of the toy industry.

- Over time the law has changed. Current law ensures more children have the opportunity to go to school until they are 18.

- In the past many people visited shops however, nowadays people have the option to also shop online.

- Nowadays most houses have electricity, compared to in the past when only rich people had electricity. This means more electrical appliances are used.

A family tree is a type of chart or diagram representing generations of families and how they are linked.

The invention of talking toys, video game consoles and tablets brought technology to the forefront of the toy industry.

Over time the law has changed. Current law ensures more children have the opportunity to go to school until they are 18.

In the past many people visited shops however, nowadays people have the option to also shop online.

Nowadays most houses have electricity, compared to in the past when only rich people had electricity. This means more electrical appliances are used.