

Be able to engage in personal and spiritual reflection.

Have appreciation and wonder.

Be able to think about significant human questions which religions and worldviews address.

Have the knowledge and understanding of Christianity and other principal religious traditions and beliefs represented in Great Britain.

I am a prepared for life in modern Britain

Have respect for all.

Be open-minded.

Have self-awareness.

Be prepared for life in multi-cultural modern Britain.

Have a positive attitude to my learning.

When I leave
Oakdene Primary
Academy I will ...

Apply the insights of the principal religious traditions to my own search for identity and significance.

Understand the ways in which beliefs influence people in their behaviour, practices and outlook.

Be aware of my own beliefs and values.

Have a positive attitude towards other people who hold religious beliefs different from my own.

Have a positive attitude to the search for meaning and purpose in life.

Understand the ways in which beliefs influence people in their behaviour, practices and outlook.