Communicating through the curriculum
Year 1
1. Listen and respond appropriately to adults and their peers	Able to concentrate on the person talking and to ignore background noise and movement which is not relevant to the situation	I can listen to the teacher in my classroom and ignore other people or noises.
	Understand 2-3 part instructions that may include time concepts, e.g. using ‘first’, ‘before’, ‘after’ or ‘when’ e.g. ‘Before you sit down you need to hang up your coat and wipe your feet.’	I can understand instructions that tell me the order I have to do something.
2. Ask relevant questions to extend their understanding and knowledge	Ask questions to find out things using ‘how’ and ‘why’ when prompted e.g. ‘Can you think of a ‘why’ question about this story?’ - ‘Why does Harry go to the island of the monsters?’	I can find things out by asking how and why questions.
	Be aware when they haven’t understood something and is able to say, for example, ‘I don’t understand’ (with no further elaboration).	I can say ‘I don’t understand’ when I’m stuck.
3. Use relevant strategies to build their vocabulary	Able to group and name members of categories and to suggest possible category names e.g. ‘Horse, cow and pig are all mammals’; ‘Pen, pencil and ruler are stationery’; ‘Rain, snow and sunshine are types of weather.’	I can sort things into groups and give each group a name.
	Able to guess the word from clues, or give others clues using shape, size, function, etc. with support e.g. ‘It is long and wriggly and makes a hissing sound.’; ‘It is found in the kitchen, it has a handle and a lip and you might put milk in it.’	I know what someone is describing when they give me some clues. I can give clues about a word for someone to guess.
4. Articulate and justify answers, arguments and opinions 5. Give well-structured descriptions, explanations and narratives for different purposes, including for expressing feelings	Use language consistently to express likes and dislikes e.g. ‘I don’t like using sticky clay.’	I can use a sentence to tell someone when I am not happy.
	Able to use early ‘story language’ e.g. ‘Once upon a time ...’; ‘One day, ...’	I can start stories using ‘Once upon a time ...’ or ‘One day, ...’
	Use language to talk through a series of steps for example for simple problem solving e.g. ‘I don’t have enough paint to finish my picture. I’m going to borrow some from another table.’	I can talk about the things I need to do so that I can complete a task.
	Able to join sentences using ‘and’ e.g. ‘I went shopping and I bought some apples.’	I can join sentences using ‘and’.
6. Maintain attention and participate actively in collaborative conversations, staying on topic and initiating and responding to comments	Maintain attention and participate in conversation and small groups providing there are minimal external distractions. Attention and participation in larger groups is sustained for most of the activity	I can listen carefully when I am in a group.
7. Use spoken language to develop understanding through speculating, hypothesising, imagining and exploring ideas 8. Speak audibly and fluently with an increasing command of standard English	Use language to talk self through steps required in simple problem solving e.g. ‘I have to get all the Lego bricks and sort them out. I need to find all the black ones. Then I can start making this monster.’	I can talk about the things I need to do so that I can complete a task.
	Produce speech that is clear and easy to understand, with only a few immaturities e.g. ‘w’ instead of ‘r’, ‘f’ instead of ‘th’, complex consonant blends e.g. ‘sc’ instead of ‘scr’.	I can say most speech sounds clearly.
	Able to say words accurately with 3 syllables or less	I can say words with up to 3 syllables clearly.
	Able to blend 3 or 4 phonemes to make a word, and segment words into individual sounds	I can blend sounds out loud to make a short word. I can say the sounds I hear in a word.
	Able to use appropriate tenses and word order e.g. ‘The girl walked to school’ or ‘Tomorrow I will be on holiday.’	I can make sentences about what is happening now, what has happened and what will happen.
9. Participate in discussions, presentations, performances, role play, improvisations and debates	Remember their words and speak clearly in presentations, performances and role play	I can speak clearly in presentations, performances and role plays when I have just got a bit to say.
10. Gain, maintain and monitor the interest of the listener(s)	Able to initiate a conversation with a class visitor by using prepared questions	I can ask a class visitor questions that I have already thought of.
11. Consider and evaluate different viewpoints, attending to and building on the contributions of others	Respond to points of interest when listening to contributions of others e.g. ‘Oh I have been to Brighton Pier as well. Did you go on the helter-skelter?’	I can make a comment when talking to other people.
12. Select and use appropriate registers for effective communication	Imitate popular language e.g. ‘It’s cool’, ‘Hey mate!’, or ‘Have you seen James Bond? It’s wicked.’	I can use expressions that I hear other people using.

Oakdene Primary Academy – Oracy Progression

Communicating through the curriculum

Year 2
1. Listen and respond appropriately to adults and their peers	Know the key points they need to focus on in order to answer a question e.g. ‘Five buses have nine passengers each but the two trains are empty. How many passengers altogether?’	I can find the most important parts in a spoken question.
	Understand complex 2 – 3 part instructions e.g. ‘Choose a character from the story we have just read, then talk to your partner about how they feel at the end of the story and be ready to share your ideas.’	I can understand long instructions where I have to do several different things.
2. Ask relevant questions to extend their understanding and knowledge	Ask a range of different types of questions to find out specific information including ‘how’ and ‘why’ e.g. ‘How do we know the burglars can’t get in?’	I can ask lots of different types of questions to find things out.
	Recognise when a message is not clear and be able to provide some information about why e.g. ‘Can you say that again; you used too many words’ or ‘It was too fast.’	I can tell someone when I don’t understand something and why I didn’t understand it.
3. Use relevant strategies to build their vocabulary	Recognise when they haven’t understood a word or words and be able to provide some information about why e.g. ‘Can you say that again; you used too many words’ or ‘It was too fast.’	I can tell someone when I don’t understand something and why I didn’t understand it.
	Able to compare words by the way they look, sound or their meaning, for example bare/bear, two/to/too, and begin to comment on this e.g. ‘If you had a bare bear then it wouldn’t have any fur!’; ‘Furious and angry mean the same thing.’	I can talk about words that look or sound the same. I can talk about words that have the same meaning.
4. Articulate and justify answers, arguments and opinions	Use simple conjunctions to justify or explain something e.g. ‘I am going to finish this picture because then I won’t have to do it for homework.’	I can explain things using a sentence with ‘because’ or ‘when’.
5. Give well-structured descriptions, explanations and narratives for different purposes, including for expressing feelings	Tell a story including setting the scene, a basic story plot and the sequence of events generally in the right order e.g. ‘Mum and the boy decided to go fishing. They put their things in the car. They drove to the lake. They started fishing. Mum caught a big fish and fell in the water.’	I can tell stories that are easy to understand.
	Describe in 2-3 sentences how to solve a problem e.g. ‘First I added up all the numbers. Then I worked out how many to make 50. Then I added 50 to make 100, ‘cos that’s the same as £1.’	I can explain how I solved a problem.
	Able to use conjunctions to increase the length and grammatical complexity of sentences, e.g. ‘because’, ‘when’.	I can use ‘because’ or ‘when’ to make my sentences longer.
6. Maintain attention and participate actively in collaborative conversations, staying on topic and initiating and responding to comments	Take turns to talk, listen and respond in two way conversations and groups	I can listen carefully in a group and take turns in a discussion.
7. Use spoken language to develop understanding through speculating, hypothesising, imagining and exploring ideas	Accurately predict what will happen in a story or retelling of an event e.g. ‘I think he is going to fall into the water because he is not looking where he is going.’	I can talk about what will happen next in a story or something that happened.
8. Speak audibly and fluently with an increasing command of standard English	Produce speech that is consistently clear and easy to understand, with very few immaturities e.g. ‘f’ instead of ‘th’, complex consonant blends, e.g. ‘sc’ instead of ‘scr’.	I can say most speech sounds clearly.
	Able to say words with 4 or more syllables fairly consistently	I can say words with up to 4 syllables clearly.
	Able to manipulate sounds in words such as deleting sounds from words e.g. ‘What word do you get if you take away the ‘f’ sound from ‘feet’? Answer: ‘eat’.	I can make new words by taking some sounds away from a word.
	Know that there are some terms or expressions that are only used amongst friends e.g. ‘Hiya!’, ‘See ya later!’	I know there are some words I only use with friends.
9. Participate in discussions, presentations, performances, role play, improvisations and debates	Take turns to talk, listen and respond in two way conversations and groups	I can listen carefully in a group and take turns in a discussion.
10. Gain, maintain and monitor the interest of the listener(s)	Usually able to keep to topic in a conversation	I can talk to others and stay on the same topic.
	Can be easily prompted to move on if they are talking too much	I can let someone else take a turn in a conversation when prompted.
11. Consider and evaluate different viewpoints, attending to and building on the contributions of others	Ask lots of questions to find out information and respond appropriately to the answers e.g. ‘It is called evaporation? OK, then the answer is that the water will evaporate when it is heated up.’	I can ask questions to find out information and use information from the answers to make my response.
12. Select and use appropriate registers for effective communication	Know that there are some terms or expressions that are only used amongst friends e.g. ‘in your face’, ‘wicked’ and ‘yeah right’ with friends but not teachers.	I know there are some words I only use with friends.

Oakdene Primary Academy – Oracy Progression

Communicating through the curriculum

Year 3
1. Listen and respond appropriately to adults and their peers	Be able to listen to complex information and work out most of the key information (some support may be required to help them to work out the next steps) e.g. ‘Tell your partner three facts about ... using the right words if you can and then write them down.’	I can listen to tricky information and find the important parts.
	Recognise the cause and effect element of spoken instructions, that there may be consequences if certain instructions are not followed e.g. ‘Everyone needs to stop talking and listen now, otherwise we will be late for break.’	I can understand why I must follow a teacher’s instruction and what will happen if I do not do this.
2. Ask relevant questions to extend their understanding and knowledge	Ask a range of different types of questions to find out specific information including ‘how’ and ‘why’ e.g. ‘How do we know this was from Ancient Roman times?’	I can ask relevant questions.
	Be aware of when they haven’t understood something because of the vocabulary used and ask a general clarification question e.g. ‘What does that long word mean?’	I can tell someone when I don’t understand all the words that they have used, and ask them about it.
3. Use relevant strategies to build their vocabulary	Experiment with new vocabulary in different contexts to test out understanding and to learn from mistakes e.g. ‘The land around the arctic has no trees and is called the tundra.’ (Meaning ‘tundra’)	I try to use new topic vocabulary in my answers.
4. Articulate and justify answers, arguments and opinions	Give reasons and explanations for choices and viewpoints in class discussions e.g. ‘I think the ending of the book is better than the ending in the film because sometimes things don’t work out well for people in real life.’	I can give a reason for what I think in a class discussion.
5. Give well-structured descriptions, explanations and narratives for different purposes, including for expressing feelings	Tell a story with a clear structure including the setting and ideas linked in different ways e.g. ‘On holiday me and Dad went to the seaside. It was great because Dad helped me build a massive sandcastle which I decorated with shells and seaweed. I took a photo of it because after a while the waves started washing it away.’	I can tell stories using conjunctions and including details about who, when and where.
	Discuss how a character may be feeling and why e.g. ‘I think he might be feeling confused because he doesn’t understand why his cat has died.’	I can talk about why I think the character feels a certain way.
	Able to use conjunctions to increase the length and grammatical complexity of sentences e.g. ‘before, after, while, so’	I can use ‘before, after, while’ and ‘so’ to make my sentences longer.
6. Maintain attention and participate actively in collaborative conversations, staying on topic and initiating and responding to comments	Able to initiate conversations with unfamiliar adults (in school or in a safe environment) and pupils	I can start a conversation with school visitors or other pupils in my school.
7. Use spoken language to develop understanding through speculating, hypothesising, imagining and exploring ideas	Understand how language is used to investigate and reflect on feelings e.g. ‘I feel sad because Jane is leaving. How do you feel?’	I can use words to describe various feelings and find out how other people feel about the same thing.
8. Speak audibly and fluently with an increasing command of standard English	Produce speech that is consistently clear and easy to understand	I can say all speech sounds clearly.
	Able to say words of any length with accuracy	I can say polysyllabic words clearly.
	Use phonological awareness skills when spelling, although some mistakes may still be made	I try to spell words with 4 or more phonemes by listening to the sounds in the words.
	Able to signal punctuation and emphasise meaning through the use of intonation e.g. pausing to divide speech into intelligible ‘chunks’ of meaning.	I can use changes in my voice to make my meaning even clearer.
9. Participate in discussions, presentations, performances, role play, improvisations and debates	Respond to the opinions of others in the group e.g. ‘Everyone on my table thinks the boy made the right choice. I agree with them.’	I can say something about what other people think.
10. Gain, maintain and monitor the interest of the listener(s)	Able to initiate conversations with unfamiliar adults (in school or in safe environment) and pupils.	I can start a conversation with school visitors or other pupils in my school.
	Exaggerate to make a story more interesting e.g. ‘I was so tired I could have slept for a week!’	I can exaggerate to make my stories more exciting.
11. Consider and evaluate different viewpoints, attending to and building on the contributions of others	Able to understand another’s point of view and show whether they agree or disagree e.g. ‘I know why you think the boy is naughty but I don’t think he did it on purpose.’	I can tell someone when I agree with their opinion and when I don’t agree.
12. Select and use appropriate registers for effective communication	Aware of the need to use more formal language with adults e.g. ‘Please could I have another pencil?’ (to the teacher) or ‘Give me/pass me another pencil (to a peer).’	I can use polite language when I am talking to adults.

Oakdene Primary Academy – Oracy Progression

Communicating through the curriculum

Year 4
1. Listen and respond appropriately to adults and their peers	Listen to information, work out which elements are key and make relevant, related comments e.g. ‘So we need to go home and ask people of different ages what telly was like when they were young and work out how things have changed. I can ask my granny, my dad and my big sister.’	I can listen to information, know the important parts and comment on it.
	Infer meanings, reasons and make predictions e.g. ‘Now, Class 4, I’m going to count to 10’ - i.e. ‘Mrs Jones is getting cross, we need to listen.’	I can work out what could happen next even when the teacher has not told me.
2. Ask relevant questions to extend their understanding and knowledge	Able to use a series of questions to keep a conversation flowing e.g. ‘Do you like science? What do you like most about science? Have you learned about food chains yet?’	I can ask a series of questions to have a conversation.
	Be aware of when they can’t remember and ask for an explanation e.g. ‘Is the author the one that writes the story and the illustrator does the pictures?’	I can say when I can’t remember certain words and ask for an explanation.
3. Use relevant strategies to build their vocabulary	Identify clearly when they haven’t understood/can’t remember specific vocabulary and can ask questions to clarify their understanding e.g. ‘What do we call a ghost again, is it a spectator or a spectre?’	I can tell someone when I can’t remember the right word to use. I can ask a question to help me.
4. Articulate and justify answers, arguments and opinions	Use complex grammar and sentences effectively to clarify, summarise, explain choices and plan e.g. ‘We decided that Jenny would go first because she’s the fastest and would get us a good start.’	I can summarise and explain my group’s discussion.
5. Give well-structured descriptions,explanations and narratives for different purposes, including for expressing feelings	Tell a story with a good structure and a distinct plot, including an exciting event with a clear resolution and end point	I can tell exciting stories using a clear plot and good vocabulary.
	Describe events at home or school clearly including key details, a clear narrative structure and linking behaviours with emotions such as nervous, worried, angry, cross, frustrated, pleased e.g. ‘I shouted because I was angry.’	I can explain things that have happened to me or people I know including how I or other people felt.
	Able to use fronted adverbials to increase the length and grammatical complexity of sentences e.g. ‘Later that day, I heard the bad news.’	I can begin my explanations or story sentences with phrases using ‘later, before, after, while’.
6. Maintain attention and participate actively in collaborative conversations, staying on topic and initiating and responding to comments	Able to sustain a conversation by giving reasons and explaining choices and views e.g. ‘I think we should start sorting out these pictures so we can stick them onto the paper. If we use the Pritt stick it will be quicker than using the other glue.’	I can add to a conversation by explaining my thinking to other people.
7. Use spoken language to develop understanding through speculating, hypothesising, imagining and exploring ideas	Able to discuss cause and effect e.g. ‘If you hold the bowl still, I’ll be able to pour the mixture in with two hands. That way I won’t spill any of it.’	I can discuss what might happen and why.
	Produce speech that is consistently clear and easy to understand	I can say all speech sounds clearly.
	Able to say words of any length with accuracy	I can say polysyllabic words clearly.
	Secure phonological awareness skills	I can identify the sounds in a word, the number of syllables and rhyming words and use this in my reading and spelling.
8. Speak audibly and fluently with an increasing command of standard English	Use formal language when appropriate in some familiar situations e.g. showing a visitor around school, using language such as ‘Excuse me’, ‘I’m pleased to meet you’ and speaking in full sentences.	I can talk politely with school visitors.
9. Participate in discussions, presentations, performances, role play, improvisations and debates	Able to take on group roles to discuss with peers e.g. able to act as the chairperson or the note taker in a group	I can take different roles in a group discussion, e.g. leader or note taker.
10. Gain, maintain and monitor the interest of the listener(s)	Add or omit detail according to how much is already known by the listener e.g. ‘Peter was in big trouble last evening when he didn’t put Munchkin, that’s our pet rabbit, away.’	When I talk to people, I usually know how much information they need.
	Use intonation to give added emphasis e.g. ‘Helpful?’, she cried, ‘You must be joking!’	I can make my reading or talking sound more interesting by how I use my voice.
11. Consider and evaluate different viewpoints, attending to and building on the contributions of others	Able to identify and reflect on key points of what they have just been told e.g. ‘So our flag is called the Union flag and not the Union Jack. The flag pole is the jack, they always call it that on the TV.’	I can follow complicated information that someone is sharing and remember the important points.
12. Select and use appropriate registers for effective communication	Understand and use popular colloquial expressions e.g. ‘That’s sick!’	I know lots of phrases that only people my age would use.

Oakdene Primary Academy – Oracy Progression
Communicating through the curriculum
Year 5
1. Listen and respond appropriately to adults and their peers	Listen to complex information and identify key elements and make relevant, related comments e.g. ‘Everyone needs to find a partner and then collect a kit. You will need two flasks, 100 ml of water and some food dye. You will need to take two colours for each group, but the groups can share if there are not enough to go around. Decide who’s going to collect what, and if you need to share colours, and then wait until I tell you what to do next.’	I can listen to complicated information, know the important parts and respond to it.
	Actively use inference, prediction and reasoning skills by looking for the underlying meaning of what has been said e.g. ‘You said there was no milk left but I can see a full jug on the table. You are teasing me!’	I can work out when a message has a different meaning.
2. Ask relevant questions to extend their understanding and knowledge	Use follow up questions linked to answers that have just been given e.g. ‘When did you ...?’, ‘What happened ... ?’, ‘Why did you ... ?’	I can ask a variety of follow up questions to find out more about the initial answer / information given.
	Ask a clarification question that requires the speaker to elaborate on what they have said e.g. ‘Could you explain again how that works?’	I can ask a specific question so that the speaker clarifies what s/he meant.
3. Use relevant strategies to build their vocabulary	Incorporate topic vocabulary into their written and spoken work e.g. ‘Everything is made up of atoms, like solids, liquids and gases.’	I can use topic vocabulary accurately in my spoken answers and written work.
4. Articulate and justify answers, arguments and opinions	Able to use complex sentences and link by meaning to present ideas logically e.g. ‘We travelled to France for our holiday and enjoyed the journey on the ferry because there was a soft play area and we were allowed to drink coke.’	I can share information with other people so that they can understand me clearly.
5. Give well-structured descriptions, explanations and narratives for different purposes, including for expressing feelings	Include a subplot in telling stories and recalling events before resolving the main storyline	I can tell stories with a sub-plot.
	Present a point of view using persuasive language e.g. ‘Please come to my party - it will be awesome! We are having a really funny clown and the biggest bouncy castle in the world.’	I know how to try to make people agree with me when I am talking to them.
	Use complex sentences and conjunctions to link ideas together in order to present ideas logically e.g. ‘The boy fell over in the park; however he did not need to go to hospital because his injuries were not serious.’	I can use long sentences to talk about my ideas.
6. Maintain attention and participate actively in collaborative conversations, staying on topic and initiating and responding to comments	Able to use and respond to a range of strategies such as asking questions or making relevant comments to keep a conversation flowing	I can ask questions and make helpful comments to help keep a conversation going.
7. Use spoken language to develop understanding through speculating, hypothesising, imagining and exploring ideas	Able to use complex sentences and to present ideas logically e.g. ‘The easiest way to get to the gym is going through the big hall which is on the left as you leave this room. Then turn right and it is the third door on the left.’	I can share complicated information with other people so that they can understand me clearly.
	Able to use language to persuade e.g. ‘Do you want to be part of something that helps people who have lost everything? Then join my fantastic fund raising group and you can make a difference to someone’s life.’	I can persuade people to agree with me by talking to them .
8. Speak audibly and fluently with an increasing command of standard English	Produce speech that is consistently clear and easy to understand	I can say all speech sounds clearly.
	Able to say words of any length with accuracy	I can say polysyllabic words clearly.
	Secure phonological awareness skills	I can identify the sounds in a word, the number of syllables and rhyming words and use this in my reading and spelling.
	Use appropriately different words and phrases, from how people in that area normally talk, and standard English e.g. ‘we were’ instead of ‘we was’, or ‘I did’ instead of ‘I done’.	I can talk using standard English when appropriate.
9. Participate in discussions, presentations, performances, role play, improvisations and debates	Able to take turns, listening carefully to others and politely agreeing or disagreeing with them	I can listen carefully to others and politely agree or disagree with them.
	Able to present a point of view by presenting evidence and using persuasive language with familiar topics e.g. ‘I think we could all go out in the snow because we all have boots, coats, gloves and hats and if we get some fresh air now we will be able to concentrate better on our work when we come back.’	I can use persuasive language when presenting my thoughts and ideas.
10. Gain, maintain and monitor the interest of the listener(s)	Realise when the listener doesn’t fully understand and try to help them	I can repeat or re-phrase what I have said to help someone understand me.
	Is able to use humour effectively	I can use language to make people laugh.
11. Consider and evaluate different viewpoints, attending to and building on the contributions of others	Actively use inference, prediction and reasoning skills by looking for the underlying meaning of what has been said e.g. ‘Are we going to Disneyland? You said there would be a brilliant surprise and you keep smiling and looking at Dad.’	I can work out when a message has a different meaning.
12. Select and use appropriate registers for effective communication	Use appropriately different words and phrases, from how people in that area normally talk, and standard English e.g. ‘we were’ instead of ‘we was’, or ‘I did’ instead of ‘I done’.	I can talk using standard English when appropriate.

Oakdene Primary Academy – Oracy Progression

Communicating through the curriculum

Year 6

1. Listen and respond appropriately toadults and their peers	Understand the key points made by a number of speakers and to compare different points of view	I can listen to information from different people and compare different points of view.
	Appreciate sarcasm when it is obvious e.g. ‘My best vase, broken. Now that was really clever.’	I can recognise when someone does not mean exactly what they say.
2. Ask relevant questions to extend their understanding and knowledge	Understand and use different types of questions: open, closed, rhetorical	I can understand and use lots of different types of questions.
	Identify clearly when they haven’t understood and be specific about what additional information they need e.g. ‘So what is the difference between transparent and translucent?’	I can ask a specific question to work out what piece of a message I don’t understand.
3. Use relevant strategies to build their vocabulary	Use ‘academic’ vocabulary (i.e. ‘Tier 2’ words e.g. co-operate, analyse) but the meaning might not be accurate e.g. ‘I had to co-operate really hard to get my work done.’	I try to use ‘learning’ words when I am talking about my work.
4. Articulate and justify answers, arguments and opinions	Able to use language to negotiate with others, to explain options available and to predict possible outcomes e.g. ‘I will put these maths books away if you will collect the pencils. This will be quicker.’	I can explain, negotiate and predict possible outcomes.
	Tell elaborate entertaining stories which are full of detailed descriptions	I can tell a story with a sub-plot and lots of detail with varied vocabulary.
	Share ideas and information, give and receive advice, offer and take notice of the opinion of others e.g. ‘I think it would be a good idea to use a different colour pen so it stands out.’ or ‘We could strengthen the towers like this, but I think your way will work better.’	I can listen to other people’s opinions and share mine.
	Use long and complex sentence structures in class and other situations e.g. ‘I will come with you only because it means that you will stop hassling me.’	I can use varied and interesting vocabulary to make my sentences longer in a variety of situations.
6. Maintain attention and participate actively in collaborative conversations, staying on topic and initiating and responding to comments	Able to share ideas and information, give and receive advice, offer and take notice of the opinion of others e.g. ‘I think the boy was being mean to the girl but you are right when you said that she was being mean to him first.’	I can share my opinions with other people and listen and respond to what they think.
