

Playground Charter

Article 31: Every child has the right to play

Children will:

- Keep hands and feet to themselves
- Look after outdoor equipment—use it correctly and share
- Use the outdoor timetable

Duty bearers will:

Article 3: The best interests of the child must be top priority

Children will:

- Keep hands and feet to themselves
- Join in games
- Look after outdoor equipment—use it correctly and share

Duty bearers will:

- Look after children who are outside
- Check equipment and areas are safe to

Article 36: Every child has the right to be safe

Children will:

- Stay in their areas where adults can see them
- Keep hands and feet to themselves
- Use equipment correctly

Duty bearers will:

Article 12: Every child has the right to a say in matters that concern them

Children will:

- Speak calmly and listen to others
- Take turns
- Suggest ways to improve their playtime

Duty bearers will:

- Listen to children
- Help children when needed
- Give consequences to children who are not following the rules or respecting other's rights

Article 15: Every child has the right to join different groups

Children will:

- Try new games and join in with others
- Use the outdoor timetable
- Give their opinion, respectfully

Duty bearers will:

- Teach children games and help them develop