

Hypothesize what has happened to this town

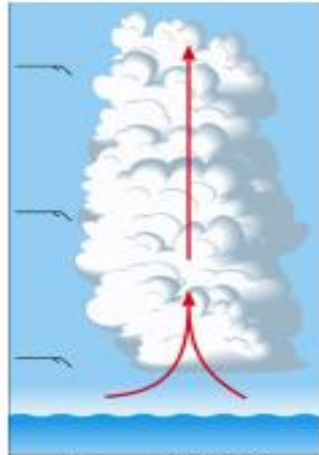

Hypothesize and create how you feel tornadoes are created using the elements below and your own geographical learning; What order do they go in?

What do you know? How can you apply it here?

Moist Air

Vertical Wind

Cold Dry Air

Warm Air

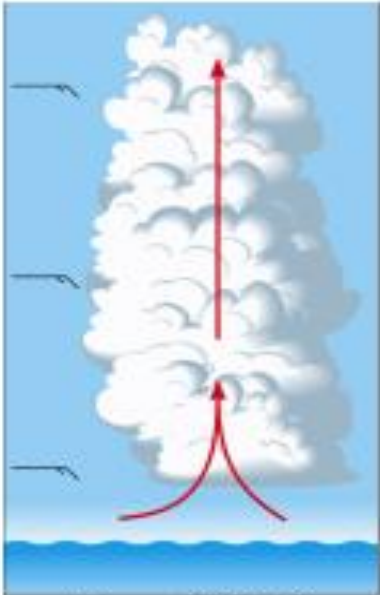

Horizontal Wind

Cumulonimbus
Clouds

Moist Air

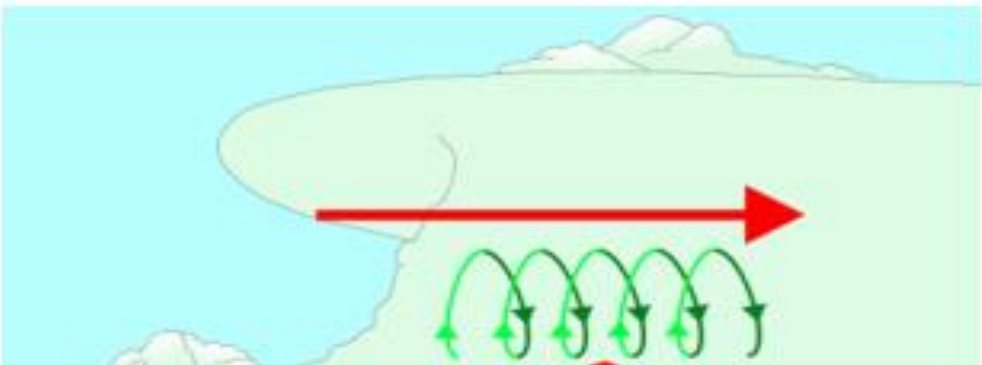

Vertical Wind

Cold Dry Air

Warm Air

Horizontal Wind

Cumulonimbus
Clouds

Tornadoes: How close was your theory?

As you watch,
pick out 5 key points that are made

- Compare these with someone else's
- Now try and use some of these terms in a sentence about Tornadoes
- Compare your sentence with someone else's, could it be improved?

The April 25–28, 2019 tornado outbreak was the largest single-system tornado outbreak ever recorded. It was also the costliest and one of the deadliest tornado outbreaks in history

Number of Tornadoes Reported From April 25-27

- Within/Around the relevant State identify;
- - The year and any speeds recorded
- - 2 Adjectives to describe the impact of the tornado/what it looked and moved like
- - 1 Short Term impact
- - 1 Long term impact
- - 1 Piece of advice

Lets Reflect on the consequences of these tornadoes
Create a Tornado of terminology using the Social, Environmental and Economical consequences

Social

Environmental

Economical

- Create a table and list the impact of the tornado for each area

Do any cross over?

Challenge: To what extent might these consequences be different in an LIC?

We will now create our own class wordcloud that will highlight those terms we consider to be the most important

Task: Using your tornado term concrete poems – create an introduction (minimum 1 paragraph) to a horror story that is set within an area that suffers from tornadoes.

How can you bring in your literacy skills in your Geography learning?

Task: Using your tornado concrete poems imagine you are a journalist reporting on a tornado that has hit Texas in Tornado Alley.

How can you bring in your knowledge of how they form as well as the impacts that might have happened?

Remember to stick to concise, factual information as much as you can to inform the public in your news report.

How might these be used in your work?

