Privacy Notice for Pupils and Parents

Our academy needs to use data on pupils in order to be able to keep you safe and deliver the best education possible. Only essential data is held, and we always follow the law when we collect, use, store and share your data.

You have a legal right to be informed about how our academy uses any personal information that we hold about you. This privacy notice explains how we collect, store and use personal data about you.

We, Oakfield Academy, are the 'data controller' for the purposes of data protection law. Our Data Protection Officer (DPO) is Amy Brittan (see 'Contact us' below).

The personal data we hold on you

We hold some personal information about you to make sure we can help you learn and look after you at school.

For the same reasons, we get information about you from some other places too – like other schools, the local council and the government.

This information includes but is not limited to:

- Your contact details
- Assessments of your work
- Your attendance records
- Your characteristics, like your ethnic background or any special educational needs
- Any medical conditions you have
- Details of any behaviour issues or exclusions
- Photographs
- Details of where you go when you leave us
- CCTV images

The personal data we hold on your parents

We hold some personal information about your parents to make sure we can help you learn and look after you at school.

- Contact details
- We may also hold some information about your parents if you have a safeguarding folder

Why we use this data

We use this data to help run the school, including to:

- Get in touch with you and your parents when we need to
- Check how you're doing in all subjects and work out whether you or your teachers need any extra help
- Provide remote learning opportunities when required
- Track how well the academy as a whole is performing
- Look after your wellbeing

Our legal basis for using this data

- We need to comply with the law (Article 6(1)(c) of UK GDPR)

- We need to use it to carry out a task in the public interest (in order to provide you with an education) (Article 6(1)(e) of UK GDPR)

Sometimes, we may also use your personal information where:

- You, or your parents have given us permission to use it in a certain way (Article 6(1)(a) of UK GDPR)
- We need to protect your interests (or someone else’s interest) e.g. in a life or death situation (Article 6(1)(d) of UK GDPR)

We may also collect and use information about your health. This is a special category of personal information, and we will only collect and use it when it is necessary for public health, e.g. protecting against serious threats to health. The legal basis here is Article 9(2)(i) of UK GDPR.

Where we have got permission to use your data, you or your parents may withdraw this at any time. We will make this clear when we ask for permission and explain how to go about withdrawing consent.

Some of the reasons listed above for collecting and using your information overlap, and there may be several grounds which mean we can use your data.

Collecting this information

While in most cases you, or your parents, must provide the personal information we need to collect, there are some occasions when you can choose whether or not to provide the data. We will always tell you if it’s optional. If you must provide the data, we will explain what might happen if you don’t.

Data sharing

We do not share personal information about you with anyone outside the school without permission from you or your parents, unless the law and our policies allow us to do so.

International transfers of personal data

We have audited where we store all the personal data processed in school and by third party services. If a third party service stores data in the EU or US, we have ensured that safeguards such as standard contractual clauses are in place to allow the safe flow of data to and from the school.

How we store this data

We will keep personal information about you while you are a pupil at our school. We may also keep it after you have left the school, where we are required to by law.

Our record retention schedule/records management policy is based on the Information and Records Management Society's toolkit for schools and sets out how long we keep information about pupils.

National Pupil Database

We are required to provide information about you to the Department for Education (a government department) as part of data collections such as the school census.

Some of this information is then stored in the National Pupil Database, which is managed by the Department for Education and provides evidence on how schools are performing. This, in turn, supports research.

It is held in electronic format for statistical purposes. This information is securely collected from a range of sources including schools, local authorities and awarding bodies.

Sharing by the Department for Education (DfE)

The law allows the Department to share pupils' personal data with certain third parties, including:

Whilst numbers fluctuate slightly over time, the DfE typically supplies data on around 600 pupils per year to the Home Office and roughly 1 per year to the Police.

For information about which organisations the Department has provided pupil information, (and for which project) or to access a monthly breakdown of data share volumes with Home Office and the Police please visit the following website: <https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/dfe-external-data-shares>
