

Explanatory Notes

Admission Form Explanatory Notes

Brothers and/or sister details;

Following The Children Act 1989

Married or divorced natural parents automatically have parental responsibility.

Natural mother automatically has parental responsibility.

Adoptive parents automatically have parental responsibility (and one effect of an Adoptive order is to extinguish previous parental responsibility).

Step-parents do not automatically acquire parental responsibility by marriage to the child's natural mother or father.

The following may acquire parental responsibility;

Natural father

Natural father by Court Order

The Local Authority through a Care Order.

Guardians (but only if parents are deceased)

The academy should make reasonable enquiries of the parent (or other person) with whom the child is living – to ascertain who has parental responsibility.

The academy should then write to all those who have parental responsibility, asking them to let the academies know if they wish to be informed about the child's progress and receive invitations to events, e.g. swimming galas, sports days, open days/evenings etc.

Where an Order is in force following a divorce in relation to the custody of children which pre-dates the Children Act 1989 the academy registering a child will not normally be permitted to change the surname of the child on the register or to otherwise register the child's surname without either (a) the consent of the both parents or (b) an order of the Court. If divorce proceedings started since the Children Act 1989 came into force on 14 October 1991 although there will less often be an order, if a Residence Order is made a child cannot be known by a new surname except with either the written consent of every person who has parental responsibility of the child or with the Court's permission.

People to contact in an Emergency

We cannot stress enough the importance of this section and would ask you to give as many local emergency contacts as possible. There is space for 4 contacts.
