

Celtic lettering

Name: _____

Spirals and knot patterns are motifs that have been found in Celtic art since the 4th Century. By the 6th Century, these patterns found their way into Christian manuscripts and were used to decorate lettering at the start of chapters.

Celtic lettering can be intricate and complex. Copy the letters below in pencil to get an idea of the skills involved. Take your time, press lightly when you draw and try to be as accurate and possible.

Use the space below to write your own name in Celtic lettering. Draw out your name lightly in pencil and then add detail. The more flamboyant the lettering the better! Use the surrounding Celtic alphabet for inspiration if you need help. Take pride in your work.
