

DUEL DE CORMEST

By WILLIAM FRED OWEN

Double bent
like old beggers
under sacks

Under the of green I saw him drowning

His hanging face, like a devil's sick of sin

Of vile incurable sores on innocent tongues

