

Poisson d'Avril / April Fool's Day text

= Which word in the text tells us this is about an old tradition

= How to you think people felt when they had practical jokes played on them?

= What other practical jokes could people play on that day.

= Explain why some words are in italics?

= What is the French word for 'fish'? What other pets names do you know in French?

= Summarise in one sentence what the text is about?

Tick the correct answer	True	False
April Fool's Day is celebrated on the 2 nd of April.
Many people believe that April Fool's Day originated from France.
On that day people tell each other jokes.
The French word for fish is 'poison'.		