

OAKFIELD ACADEMY

BELIEVE AND ACHIEVE

Thursday 10th September 2020

Dear Parents,

We are so pleased to have pupils back at the academy, the atmosphere has been vibrant and the behaviour has been excellent. We are working towards increasing subject specialist teaching across the academy and will continue to keep you updated of our plans.

We really need your support to improve things further and help us keep within national guidance. Many pupils are arriving earlier than their allocated times which causes congestion around the entrances and potential mixing of our bubbles. Please remind them of the need to socially distance from other year groups and members of the public.

Whether you bring them or they walk themselves, they MUST NOT ARRIVE earlier than these times:

Breakfast Club - 8am (Booked pupils only)

Years 5 & 6 - 8:25am

Years 7 & 8 – 8:40am

Thank you to pupils travelling by bus who may arrive at slightly different times, for waiting sensibly and patiently.

Whilst we have relaxed the uniform for the time being, we ask that pupils arrive to school suitably dressed. This includes wearing trainers and comfortable clothes for sporting activities. Pupil should not be wearing jewellery, revealing clothing, hair dye or have extreme haircuts – including tramlines.

Please can all academy reading books be returned to their tutor.

Thank you for your continued support during this time of adjustment.

Yours Sincerely

Miss Emma Wilkes
