

Monarch of the United Kingdom

To carry out tasks on behalf of the nation

Be comfortable being filmed for Christmas speeches shown on television to the nation.

You must be willing and able to go abroad for state visits.

You need to be able to host learners from all around the world.

You need to be fit and worthy to be Head of the Armed Forces and the Church of England.

Daily duties include:

- Reading reports sent from the government and possibly signing them
- Public speaking
- Travelling and visiting people all around the country
- Holding events for up to 8,000 people.

Perks of the job include:

- Riding in a golden carriage
- Owning swans
- Giving titles and Honors to people.
- Having two birthdays
- Handing out telegrams on peoples 100th birthday
- Living in Buckingham Palace with country houses else where
- Having servants to do everything for you

*Please apply in writing to:
Buckingham Palace Westminster, London SW1A 1AA*

