

Transition task 3 – Book review

We would love to know what you thought about the book you were given and ask that you review it. You can either use the frameworks attached or make up your own. You could record yourself giving your thoughts and opinions of the book if you would like. We look forward to seeing these in September.