Newsletter #4 – Summer Term

York Residential

Our Class Three pupils are currently away in York on their one night residential visit. Yesterday, the pupils walked along the river into the city centre, then visited the Jorvik Centre and Dig. On returning to their accommodation, the pupils took part in a bread making workshop! Today, the pupils will be visiting York Minister.

Thank you Miss Brown for arranging such a brilliant trip and to all the staff that accompanied the pupils.

Warm Weather

It has been great to finally have an entire week of sunshine this week! The pupils have really enjoyed their outdoor PE lessons and playtimes. If the weather continues next week please ensure that your child brings a water bottle and cap to school. Also, please ensure that your child has suntan lotion on.

Tom Palmer Visit

Award winning author Tom Palmer will be visiting school on Tuesday 21st May. Tom will be talking to the pupils in Class Three and Four about his latest book Angel of Grasmere as well as his extensive back catalogue. As part of Tom's visit he will also be signing copies of his books. If you would like your child to have a signed copy of one of his books please use the ordering information attached to the newsletter email.

Please note the deadline for orders is midnight on Wednesday 15th May.

SATs

Next week, our amazing Year 6 pupils will be completing their Standard Assessment Tests (SATs). The pupils will sit tests in Reading, Maths and Spelling, Punctuation and Grammar. The assessment results are used as a way of measuring school performance nationally. The pupils will receive their results on Tuesday 9th July.

National Online Safety

This week's National Online Safety update is about online shopping. The guide explains how different online shopping apps and websites work.
