Newsletter #8 – Summer Term

Jennifer Killick Visit

On Wednesday, award winning author Jennifer Killick visited school. Jennifer spent the morning working in Class Three and Four. She talked to the class about the books she has had published as well as what inspired her to become an author. The pupils also had the opportunity to ask Jennifer a range of questions, ranging from which book was Jennifer’s favourite to write and if any of her books are turned into a film can Mr Turley be in it!

Thank you so much to Bookwagon for offering Jennifer’s books at a discounted rate prior to the visit.

Planting

The pupils are beginning to reap the benefits of the planting that was undertaken earlier in the Summer Term. Earlier this week, one of our pupils brought round a tray of strawberries grown outside Class Two and Three, they were delicious! We well as strawberries, we currently have potatoes and a selection of herbs growing. Thank you again to B&Q for donating all the plants to school for free.

National Online Safety

This week’s National Online Safety guide is about how you can encourage your child to play friendly within a group. The guide also explains the importance of children understanding how trying their best is so important.
