Newsletter #10 – Autumn Term

Remembrance Day Service and Collective Worship

On Tuesday, we marked Remembrance Day with a special service at church. Our Collective Worship Committee, along with Mrs Hadwin, did a brilliant job planning the service. The committee respectfully read out the names of the people on the memorial cross in church, helping us remember and honour those who have served. Class Four contributed by reading aloud poignant poems, while Class One made a special wreath which they have left in church.

Classes Two and Three have also produced some amazing Remembrance-inspired artwork, which is proudly displayed around the school for everyone to appreciate.

Learning about Diwali

Earlier this week, as part of Class Two's RE topic on 'Celebrations,' the pupils explored the Festival of Lights, Diwali. The children learned about how Hindus celebrate this vibrant festival. To bring this learning to life, the pupils made their own candle holders, reflecting the tradition of lighting candles during Diwali.

Celebration of Ministry Service

On Thursday evening it was great to attend a special church service welcoming Reverend Becky and Reverend Lucy to the parish. We can't wait to welcome both Becky and Lucy to our school later this term.

National Online Safety

This week's National Online Safety guide explores AI-generated videos, and the dangers they pose to young people, including deepfakes, misinformation and manipulation.
