Newsletter #10 – Spring Term

Class Two Art Work

This week, Class Two have been introduced to the Scottish artist Steven Brown. The pupils started the week by studying examples of Brown's artwork in their own Old Hutton Art Gallery in the village hall. After that, the pupils explored using different lines, tones and textures when drawing. To finish the week, the pupils created their own pieces of art.

Class One Visits and Visitors

Class One are currently learning about people who help us. Over the last week, the pupils have been lucky enough to visit Kendal Fire Station and be visited by the Police and a Dentist. Thank you so much to the school parents who made time in their busy schedules to come into school and talk to the class.

Highwayman Visit

On Wednesday, Class Four were lucky enough to be visited by notorious highwayman John Nevison. John, played by Paul Mackintosh, entertained the class with tales of his highwayman antics and made links to the classic poem The Highwayman by Alfred Noyes. As a result of Paul's visit the pupils produced a range of fantastic highwayman themed writing and artwork.

Reading Club

This week, Key Stage Two Reading Club received their copies of Tyger by SF Said.

The pupils meet every Tuesday night after school to read the story and talk about the characters and the plot.

Thank you to Bookwagon for giving school an amazing discount on the books.

National Online Safety

This week's National Online Safety update is about how online gaming can support positive outcomes. The guide explains how gaming can help develop an understanding of team, encourage creativity and a sense of achievement.
