Newsletter #3 – Autumn Term

Bedtime Books

Over the last two days, our newly appointed Year Five and Six Reading Ambassadors have been busy shortlisting books that our Class One and Two pupils can enjoy at bedtime. These books are for you to read to your child, providing a lovely opportunity to share a story together and enjoy the magic of reading at home. If you would like your child to bring a bedtime book home, please speak to me in school and I will make sure they bring one home.

All we ask is that you bring the book back to school once you have read it, so another child can enjoy it too. We hope these bedtime books will become a special part of your family's evening routine.

Book Swap

Next Friday, we will be holding a Book Swap at school. We would like each pupil to bring in one book from home that they would like to give away to another reader. Our Reading Ambassadors will collect the books and take them to the Village Hall, where they will be displayed ready for pupils to visit straight after school and choose a new book to take home.

National Online Safety

This week's National Online Safety guide is about Character AI, an AI platform that allows young people to create their own AI character that they can interact with.
