Newsletter #10 – Spring Term

Dear Parents and Carers,

Dance Platform

Well done to Class Four for their amazing performance at the Dance Platform event at the Brewery Arts Centre on Tuesday evening. The group's space themed dance was incredible! Thank you to everyone who supported the event and thank you to Miss Harrison for putting together such a brilliant performance and to Mrs Nelson, Mrs Sunter and Miss Helm for giving up their evening to help look after the pupils.

National Online Safety

Thank you to those school families that have already signed up to National Online Safety. As a reminder, the online learning platform provides families with access to videos, tutorials and reports on how to stay safe online. If you are interested in signing up, please follow the link. <https://nationalonlinesafety.com/enrol/old-hutton-cofe-school>

I have also attached a document from National Online Safety to the newsletter entitled 'Top Tips for Adopting Safe and Healthy Online Habits'. The report outlines how to develop a child's digital resilience.

Senegal Trip

On Wednesday, Miss Harrison set off on an amazing trip to Senegal! We all hope she has an amazing time and look forward to welcoming her back to school after the Easter holidays. Whilst in Senegal Miss Harrison will be visiting a host of schools and delivering letters our Class Four pupils have written for the Senegalese school children.

Easter Holidays

Please note that we will be breaking up for the Easter Holidays next Friday. School for ALL pupils will finish at 2pm. There will be no after school club or extra-curricular clubs on that day.

Amazing Artwork

Class Three are really enjoying studying Austrian architect and artist Friedensreich Hundertwasser in their art sessions with Mrs Foley. The pupils produced amazing oil pastel pieces of art based on designing their own towns and cities.

More photos of the brilliant artwork can be found on our Facebook page.

Key Dates

Event	Date
Break up for Easter Holidays	Friday 31 st March at 2pm

Movie Night Thanks:

Sarah and Hazel ran movie night this week showing Horrid Henry. Mrs Parsons and Mr Turley supported the night. Everyone enjoyed it. This year we are showing movies that are based on books so consider reading a Horrid Henry book with your child if they enjoyed the movie!
