3 Definitions

- 3.1 For the purpose of this policy, a "complaint" can be defined as 'an expression of dissatisfaction' towards the actions taken or a perceived lack of action taken.
- 3.2 Complaints can be resolved formally, through this procedure, or informally dependent on the complainant's choice.
- 3.3 A "concern" can be defined as 'an expression of worry or doubt' where reassurance is required.
- 3.4 Any complaint or concern will be taken seriously, whether formally or informally, and the appropriate procedures will be implemented.
- 3.5 A "grievance" is an issue raised by a member of staff where they feel the Trust has not implemented a policy or process fairly or properly. Grievances will be dealt with in line with the Trust's Grievance Policy.
- 3.6 For the purpose of this policy, concerns will be classed and addressed as complaints.
- 3.7 For the purpose of this policy, "unreasonable complaints" include:

Vexatious complaints:

- Are obsessive, persistent, harassing, prolific, repetitious
- Insist upon pursuing unmeritorious complaints and/or unrealistic outcomes beyond all reason
- Insist upon pursuing meritorious complaints in an unreasonable manner
- Are designed to cause disruption or annoyance
- Demand for redress which lacks any serious purpose or value

Serial or persistent complaints:

- Are duplicated, sent by the same complainant once the initial complaint has been closed
- Are new complaints that are submitted additionally, as part of an existing open complaint, by the same complainant.

3.8 Serial or persistent complaints will only be marked as 'serial' once the complainant has completed the complaints procedure. It is the complaint that will be marked as 'serial' meaning the complainant can complain about a separate issue if necessary.

3.9 For the purpose of this policy, "duplicate complaints" are identical complaints received from a complainant's spouse, partner, grandparent or child. These complaints will not be addressed again, the individual making the second complaint will be informed that the complaint has been dealt with on a local level and if they are dissatisfied with the result, they can appeal in accordance with the escalation process outlined in this policy.

3.10 Any new details provided by a complainant's spouse, partner, grandparent or child, will be investigated and dealt with in line with the complaints procedure.

4 Making a Complaint

4.1 Complaints are not restricted to parents of attending pupils. The Trust will consider all complaints, providing they are not anonymous.

4.2 The Trust will ensure the complaints procedure is:

- 4.2.1 Easily accessible and publicised on the Trust's website.
- 4.2.2 Simple to understand and put into practice.
- 4.2.3 Impartial and fair to all parties involved.
- 4.2.4 Respectful of confidentiality duties.
- 4.2.5 Continuously under improvement, using information gathered during the procedure to inform the Trust's Executive Team.
- 4.2.6 Fairly investigated by an independent person when necessary.
- 4.2.7 Used to address all issues to provide appropriate and effective responses where necessary.

4.3 Complaints are expected to be made as soon as possible after an incident arises to amend the issue in an appropriate timescale.

4.4 The Trust upholds a three-month time limit in which a complaint can be lodged regarding an incident.

- 4.5 Complaints made outside this time limit will not be automatically refused and exceptions will be considered.
- 4.6 In the case of any timescales changing, all parties involved will be informed of the changes in a timely manner.
- 4.7 Complaints should be made using the appropriate channels of communication, including the use of the Complaints Procedure Form (see Appendix 1).
- 4.8 All complaints shall be considered, whether they are made in person, by telephone, in writing, electronically via email, or via a third party (such as the Citizen's Advice Bureau), providing they are not anonymous.
- 4.9 A complaint can progress to the next stage of the procedure even if it is not viewed as "justified". All complainants are given the opportunity to fully complete the complaints procedure.
- 4.10 Any complaint made against a member of staff will be initially dealt with by the Headteacher, and then by a committee of the Local Governing Body if not resolved.
- 4.11 Any complaint made against the Headteacher shall be initially dealt with by the Chief Executive and then by a committee of the Trust Board, if not resolved.
- 4.12 Any complaint made against the Chief Executive shall be initially dealt with by the Chair of Trustees and then by a committee of the Trust Board.

- 4.14 Any complaint made against the entire Local Governing Body/Trust Board, or complaints involving the Chair and the Vice Chair, should be made in writing to the Trust Governance Professional (Director of Governance and Compliance). The Governance Professional will then determine the most appropriate course of action, depending on the nature of the complaint. This action may involve sourcing an independent investigator to initially deal with the complaint and then getting the complaint to be heard by co-opted Governors from another school/Trust.
- 4.15 Under some circumstances, it may be necessary to deviate from the complaints procedure. Any deviation will be documented.
- 4.16 Information about a complaint will not be disclosed to a third party without written consent from the complainant.

5 Complaints Procedure

Stage one – Informal concern

- 5.1 A complaint may be made in person, by telephone or in writing.
- 5.2 The member of staff who has received the complaint can discuss the concern with the Headteacher or the nominated Complaints Co-ordinator to seek support.
- 5.3 To prevent any later challenge or disagreement over what was said, brief notes of meetings and telephone calls are kept and a copy of any written response is added to the record. These notes are kept securely on the Trust's ICT system and, where appropriate, encrypted.
- 5.4 If the concern is about the Headteacher, the Chief Executive should be informed and will handle the complaint.
- 5.5 If a complaint is made initially to a Governor/Trustee, the complainant should be referred to the appropriate person. The Governor/Trustee in question should not act alone on a complaint outside the procedure.
- 5.6 Within 15 school days, the complainant and the relevant member of staff should discuss the issue in a respectful and informal manner to seek a mutual resolution. Notes must be taken during this discussion.
- 5.7 At this stage, the complainant will be asked what they think might resolve the issue – any acknowledgement that the Trust could have handled the situation better is not an admission of unlawful or negligent action.
- 5.8 If an appropriate resolution cannot be sought at this informal level, or if the complainant is dissatisfied with the outcome following the initial discussions, the complainant may wish to proceed to the next level of the procedure.

Stage two – Formal complaint

- 5.9 Stage two of the process will be completed within 15 school days. Where the situation is recognised as complex, and it is deemed to be unable to be resolved within this timescale, the Headteacher will contact the complainant to inform them of the revised target date via a written notification.
- 5.10 An appointment with the Headteacher should be made, as soon as reasonably practical, to avoid any possible worsening of the situation.
- 5.11 If the complaint is against the Chief Executive, the complainant will initially need to write, in confidence, to the Chair of the Trust Board. The Chair will seek to resolve the issue informally before moving directly to stage three of the procedure.
- 5.12 Where the Headteacher has made reasonable attempts to accommodate the complainant with dates for a complaint meeting and they refuse or are unable to attend, the meeting will be convened in their absence and a conclusion will be reached in the interests of drawing the complaint to a close.

- 5.13 Where there are communication difficulties, the complaint may be made in person or via telephone.
- 5.14 To prevent any later challenge or disagreement over what was said, brief notes of meetings and telephone calls are kept, and a copy of any written response is added to the record. These notes are kept securely on the Trust's ICT system and, where appropriate, encrypted.
- 5.15 The Headteacher will appoint an Investigation Officer to assist them and undertake a full investigation. A report will be produced providing findings against each of the points raised in the complaint.
- 5.16 In terms of a complaint being made against a member of staff, the Headteacher will discuss the issue with the staff member in question. Where necessary, the Investigation Officer will conduct interviews with any relevant parties, including witnesses and pupils, and take statements from those involved.
- 5.17 All discussions shall be recorded in writing and findings and resolutions will be communicated to the complainant either verbally or in writing.
- 5.18 Once all facts are established, the Headteacher shall contact the complainant in writing with an explanation of the decision. The complainant will be advised of any escalation options (for example, escalation to stage three) and will be provided with details of this process.
- 5.19 Any further action the Trust plans to take to resolve the issue will be explained to the complainant in writing.
- 5.20 If the complainant is not satisfied with the outcome suggested, the procedure will progress to stage three.
- 5.21 If the complainant is not satisfied with the manner in which the process has been followed, considers the decision to be perverse, or believes that the Investigation Officer or Complaints Coordinator has acted unreasonably, they may request that the complaint be reviewed by a Complaint Appeals Panel (stage three).

6 Roles and Responsibilities – Stages 1 and 2

For the purposes of this policy, where the Headteacher, Chair of Local Governing Body and Governing Body are allocated roles of responsibility, if the concern is raised regarding or is against the Headteacher, the responsibility will be assumed by the CEO, Chair of Trustees and the Trust Board.

- 7.4 To prevent any later challenge or disagreement over what was said, brief notes of meetings and telephone calls are kept, and a copy of any written response is added to the record. These notes are kept securely on the Trust's ICT system and, where appropriate, encrypted.
- 7.5 Written acknowledgement of the complaint will be made within 3 school days. This will inform the complainant that a CAP will hear the complaint within 20 school days.
- 7.6 Neither the Trust nor the complainant should bring legal representation to the CAP proceedings; however, there are occasions where legal representation will be necessary, for example where an employee is a witness in a complaint, they may be entitled to bring union or legal representation.
- 7.7 The Chair, or another nominated Governor will convene a CAP comprising:
 - Three people not involved in the complaint, one of whom is independent of the management and running of the school.
 - Governors of the school the complaint is about are not eligible to be independent panel members.
 - Governors from another Local Governing Body can be members of the CAP.

- 7.10 5 school days' notice will be given to all parties attending the CAP, including the complainant.
- 7.11 All written material relevant to the complaint will be collated and sent to all parties attending the CAP, no later than 5 school days before the meeting.
- 7.12 Prior to the hearing, the Chair will have written to the complainant informing them of how the review will be conducted. The Headteacher/Chief Executive will also have a copy of this letter.
- 7.13 At the hearing, all participants will be given the opportunity to put their case across and discuss any issues.
- 7.14 The CAP will consider issues raised in the original complaint and any issues which have been highlighted during the complaints procedure.
- 7.15 The meeting should allow for:

- 12.9 Requests for information and issues with the Trust's process for dealing with Freedom of Information requests is outlined in the Trust's Data Policy.

13 Exceptional Circumstances

- 13.1 The DfE, Ofsted, Headteacher, Chief Executive, Local Governing Body and Trust Board expects complainants to have completed the Trust's complaints procedure before directing a complaint to them. The exceptions to this include when:

13.1.1 Pupils are at risk of harm.

13.1.2 Pupils are missing education.

13.1.3 A complainant is being prevented from having their complaint progress through the Trust's complaints procedure

13.1.4 The DfE, Ofsted, Headteacher, Chief Executive Officer, Local Governing Body or Trust Board have evidence that the Trust is proposing to act or is acting unlawfully or unreasonably.

- 13.2 If a social services authority decides to investigate a situation, the Headteacher, Chief Executive, Trust Board or Local Governing Body may postpone the complaints procedure.

- 13.3 Where a matter can be resolved through a legal appeal, it will not be considered as a formal complaint. The key areas are: admissions decisions, certain decisions relating to formal assessment of SEND, and decisions to permanently exclude a child.

- 13.4 If a complainant commences legal action against the Trust in relation to their complaint, the Trust will consider whether to suspend the complaints procedure, until those legal proceedings have concluded.

14 Managing Unreasonable Requests

- 14.1 The Trust is committed to dealing with all complaints fairly and impartially, and to providing a high-quality service to those who complain. The Trust will not normally limit the contact complainants have with the Trust; however, will not expect staff to tolerate unacceptable behaviour and will act to protect staff from that behaviour, including that which is abusive, offensive or threatening.

- 14.2 A complaint may be regarded as unreasonable when the person making the complaint:

14.2.1 Refuses to articulate their complaint or specify the grounds of a complaint or the outcomes sought by raising the complaint, despite offers of assistance.

- 14.2.2 Refuses to co-operate with the complaints investigation process while still wishing their complaint to be resolved.
- 14.2.3 Refuses to accept that certain issues are not within the scope of a complaints procedure.
- 14.2.4 Insists on the complaint being dealt with in ways which are incompatible with the adopted complaints procedure or with good practice.
- 14.2.5 Introduces trivial or irrelevant information which the complainant expects to be taken into account and commented on, or raises large numbers of detailed but unimportant questions, and insists they are fully answered, often immediately and to their own timescales.
- 14.2.6 Makes unjustified complaints about staff who are trying to deal with the issues and seeks to have them replaced.
- 14.2.7 Changes the basis of the complaint as the investigation proceeds.
- 14.2.8 Repeatedly makes the same complaint (despite previous investigations or responses concluding that the complaint is groundless or has been addressed).
- 14.2.9 Refuses to accept the findings of the investigation into that complaint where the Trust's complaints procedure has been fully and properly implemented and completed including referral to the DfE/ESFA (as applicable).
- 14.2.10 Seeks an unrealistic outcome.
- 14.2.11 Makes excessive demands on the Trust's time by frequent, lengthy, complicated and stressful contact with staff regarding the complaint in person, in writing, by email and by telephone while the complaint is being dealt with.
- 14.3 A complaint may also be considered unreasonable if the person making the complaint does so (either face-to-face, by telephone, in writing or electronically):
- Maliciously.
 - Aggressively.
 - Using threats, intimidation or violence.
 - Using abusive, offensive or discriminatory language.
 - Knowing it to be false.
 - Using falsified information.
 - By publishing unacceptable information in a variety of media such as in social media websites and newspapers.
- 14.4 Complainants should limit the numbers of communications with the Trust while a complaint is being progressed. It is not helpful if repeated correspondence is sent (either by letter, phone, email or text) as it could delay the outcome being reached.

- 14.5 Whenever possible, the Headteacher or Chair of Governors will discuss any concerns with the complainant informally before applying an 'unreasonable' marking.
- 14.6 If the behaviour continues, the Headteacher will write to the complainant explaining that their behaviour is unreasonable and asking them to change it. For complainants who excessively contact the Trust causing a significant level of disruption, the Trust may specify methods of communication and limit the number of contacts in a communication plan. This will usually be reviewed after 6 months.
- 14.7 In response to any serious incident of aggression or violence, the concerns and actions taken will be put in writing immediately and the police informed. This may include banning an individual from the premises.

15 Complaints Campaigns

- 15.1 For the purposes of this policy, "complaints campaigns" are where the Trust receives large volumes of complaints that are all based on the same subject.
- 15.2 Where the Trust becomes the subject of a complaints campaign from complainants who are not connected with the Trust, a standard, single response will be published on the Trust's website.
- 15.3 If the Trust receives a large number of complaints about the same subject from complainants who are connected to the Trust, e.g. parents, each complainant will receive an individual response.
- 15.4 If complainants remain dissatisfied with the Trust's response, they will be directed to the DfE for advice.

16 Barring from the premises

- 16.1 Trust premises are private property and therefore any individual may be barred from entering the premises.
- 16.2 If an individual's behaviour is cause for concern, the Headteacher will ask the individual to leave the premises.
- 16.3 The Headteacher will notify the parties involved in writing, explaining that their implied licence for access to the premises has been temporarily revoked and why, subject to any representations that the individual may wish to make.
- 16.4 The individual involved will be given the opportunity to formally express their views regarding the decision to bar them.
- 16.5 This decision to bar will be reviewed by the Chair of Governors or a committee of Governors taking into account any discussions following the incident.

- 16.6 If the decision is made to continue the bar, the individual will be contacted in writing, informing them of how long the bar will be in place, they will also be informed of when the decision will be reviewed.
- 16.7 Anyone wishing to make a complaint regarding a barring order can do so in writing to the Headteacher.
- 16.8 Once the Trust's complaints procedure is completed, the only remaining avenue of appeal is through the Courts.

17 Transferring Data

- 17.1 When a pupil changes school, the pupil's educational record will be transferred to the new school and no copies will be kept. The Trust will hold records of complaints separate to pupil records while a complaint is ongoing, so that access to these records can be maintained. Information that the Trust retains relating to a complaint will be stored securely.

18 Learning Lessons

- 18.1. The Chair of Governors, Chair of Trustees, Headteacher and Chief Executive will review any underlying issues raised by complaints with the Headteacher/Chief Executive, where appropriate, and respecting confidentiality, to determine whether there are any improvements that the Trust can make to its procedures or practice to help prevent similar events in the future.

19 Availability

- 19.1 A copy of this policy will be made available on request. It will also be published on the Trust website, as recommended by the ESFA.

20 Monitoring and Review

- 20.1 The complaints procedure will be reviewed annually.
- 20.2 Information gathered through reviewing the complaints procedure will be used to continuously improve and develop the process.
- 20.3 The monitoring and reviewing of complaints will be used to help evaluate the Trust's performance.
