

Students will complete AQA English Language Paper 2 and should focus on the following areas:

- Understanding and analysing non-fiction and literary non-fiction extracts from different time periods.
- Identifying and explaining language and structural techniques, including how writers communicate their ideas, viewpoints and perspectives.
- Evaluating writers' viewpoints and perspectives, using precise evidence and explaining the effects of the writers' choices.
- Comparing ideas and perspectives across two texts, considering how different writers present their viewpoints.
- Writing for a specific audience, purpose and form, with a focus on clear viewpoints, developed arguments and persuasive techniques.
- Using a range of vocabulary, sentence structures and rhetorical devices to engage and influence the reader.
- Completing past paper questions under timed conditions, with particular attention to effective time management and accurate SPaG.
