

PRIVACY NOTICES FOR ENDEAVOUR HOLIDAY CAMPS

Endeavour Learning Trust

1. INTRODUCTION

Endeavour Holiday Camps are multi-activity camps set up and run by Endeavour Learning Trust during the school holidays. The camps are open to all primary school children aged between 5 and 11.

For the purposes of this document 'we' means Tarleton Academy, Burscough Priory Academy as part of Endeavour Learning Trust (ELT).

This privacy notice sets out the basis on which any personal data we collect from you or your child, or that you provide to us, is handled by us. In this notice, you will see different names or terms used that you may not be familiar with, such as:

Data Controller: This person (or group of people, like a school) is in charge of the information we collect.

Data Processor: This person processes information for the data controller.

Data Protection Officer (DPO): This person makes sure we do everything the law says. The Trust DPO is Mrs P Langton.

Personal Data: This means any information that can be used to identify someone, such as your address and date of birth.

The categories of student information and data that we collect, hold and share include:

- Personal information (such as name, address and date of birth)
- Attendance information, such as sessions attended.
- Medical conditions including any special conditions your child may have that we need to know about to keep them safe.
- Photographs (using photographs of your child counts as processing personal data). Before we take or use any photographs we will ask you and a parent to give permission for us to take and use pictures of you. We might use the pictures on display boards, on social media or on the Trust's websites, for example.

2. WHY WE COLLECT AND USE THIS INFORMATION

We use yours and your children's data:

- to provide appropriate care whilst your child is at the camp
- to comply with the law regarding data sharing
- to safeguard children
- for marketing, website and social media purposes
- for photographic displays
- to manage student's medicines on school premises
- to manage the CCTV process

3. THE LAWFUL BASIS ON WHICH WE USE THIS INFORMATION

On the 25th May 2018 the Data Protection Act 1998 was replaced by the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR). The condition for processing under the GDPR will be:

Article 6

1. Processing shall be lawful only if and to the extent that at least one of the following applies:
 - (c) Processing is necessary for compliance with a legal obligation to which the controller is subject;

Article 9

1. Processing of personal data revealing racial or ethnic origin, political opinions, religious or philosophical beliefs, or trade union membership, and the processing of genetic data, biometric data for the purpose of uniquely identifying a natural person, data concerning health or data concerning a natural person's sex life or sexual orientation shall be prohibited.
2. Paragraph 1 shall not apply if one of the following applies:
 - (j) Processing is necessary for archiving purposes in the public interest, scientific or historical research purposes or statistical purposes in accordance with Article 89(1) based on Union or Member State law which shall be proportionate to the aim pursued, respect the essence of the right to data protection and provide for suitable and specific measures to safeguard the fundamental rights and the interests of the data subject.

The Education (Information about Individual Pupils) (England) Regulations 2013 - Regulation 5 'Provision of information by non-maintained special schools and Academies to the Secretary of State' states 'Within fourteen days of receiving a request from the Secretary of State, the proprietor of a non-maintained special school or an Academy (shall provide to the Secretary of State such of the information referred to in Schedule 1 and (where the request stipulates) in respect of such categories of pupils, or former pupils, as is so requested.'

The Education Act 1996 - Section 537A – states that we provide individual pupil information as the relevant body such as the Department for Education.

Children's Act 1989 – Section 83 – places a duty on the Secretary of State or others to conduct research.

4. COLLECTING INFORMATION

Whilst the majority of information you provide to us is mandatory for your child to attend Endeavour Holiday Camps, some of it is provided to us on a voluntary basis. In order to comply with the General Data Protection Regulation, we will inform you whether you are required to provide certain information to us or if you have a choice in this.

PRIVACY NOTICES FOR
ENDEAVOUR HOLIDAY CAMPS ENDEAVOUR LEARNING TRUST

We will use the information you give to us for the following reasons:

- to register and provide daytime activities for your child;
- to protect the welfare of your child and to promote the objects and interest of our camps;
- to store this information on school network and internal filing systems;
- to manage any queries or disputes you or your child may have with us or that we have with you or your child;
- to enforce our terms of use with you;
- to send out surveys to you by email in order for you to provide feedback to us on our camps;
- to send out information to you by email regarding current and future camps;
- to invoice you for our services;
- keep a list of your child's allergies or medical requirements in case of emergency. It is necessary for the camp to have a list readily available to our staff so that we are able to look after your child promptly in the event of a medical emergency.

We may take photographs/videos/webcam images of children whilst on school site or away from the school site. To comply with the General Data Protection Regulation, photo consent is obtained by completion of the appropriate section of the booking form.

5. STORING DATA

Data will be retained in accordance with the ELT GDPR Compliant Records Management Policy.

6. WHO WE SHARE DATA WITH

We may share your information with the following 3rd parties,

- Travel companies for the purposes of booking, organising and managing visits and trips arranged whilst attending the camp
- Tarleton Academy and Burscough Priory Academy have CCTV systems to address the safety of children, staff welfare, site security and to make evidence available to authorised investigatory bodies. The Academy's CCTV Policy defines the roles and responsibilities, provides staff with clear guidance about their role whilst using the system and describes how data is stored & shared.

7. WHY WE SHARE INFORMATION

We do not share information about your children with anyone without consent unless the law and our policies allow us to do so.

8. DATA COLLECTION REQUIREMENTS

To find out more about the data collection requirements placed on us by the Department for Education (for example; via the school census) go to <https://www.gov.uk/education/data-collection-and-censuses-for-schools>.

9. REQUESTING ACCESS TO YOUR PERSONAL DATA

Under data protection legislation, parents and children have the right to request access to information about them that we hold. To make a request for your personal information, or be given access to your child's record, contact the DPO.

You also have the right to:

- object to processing of personal data that is likely to cause, or is causing, damage or distress
- prevent processing for the purpose of direct marketing
- object to decisions being taken by automated means
- in certain circumstances, have inaccurate personal data rectified, blocked, erased or destroyed; and
- claim compensation for damages caused by a breach of the Data Protection regulations

If you have a concern about the way we are collecting or using your personal data, please raise your concern with the DPO. If your concerns are not dealt with to your satisfaction you can contact the Information Commissioner's Office at <https://ico.org.uk/concerns/>

10. FOUR IMPORTANT THINGS TO UNDERSTAND AND WHO TO CONTACT

Now you've read this, we hope you understand that:

- The law allows us to get and use your information to help us do our job.
- We may share your information with others, but only when we really need to.
- We will ask for your permission to share your information whenever you have a choice.
- You can tell us not to share your information, even when you have said yes before.

If you would like to discuss anything in this Privacy Notice, please contact Mrs P Langton, DPO, on 01772 812644.
