Thursday, 23 February 2023

Dear Parents/Carers,

I write to remind you of the forthcoming strike day which is due to take place next week on Tuesday 28th February 2023.

On this day the school will once again operate in line with the principles of emergency planning and response guidance and will only be open to our most vulnerable young people and the children of critical workers. All other students, as for the last strike day, will be expected to access remote learning from home, details of which will follow shortly. On Monday 27th February lunch bags will be offered to our non-attending students who are entitled to free school meals.

We are fully aware that we now have students on roll who were not with us for the first strike day on 1st February 2023, and as such we will make it a priority to contact the families of these students over the next few days in regard to whether or not they will be expected to attend school or work from home.

We thank you in advance for your cooperation in this matter and we apologise for any inconvenience this action may cause. As always if you have any concerns please do not hesitate to contact us.

We will be in touch in due course in regards to the remaining strike dates that are set for Wednesday 15th and Thursday 16th March 2023.

Kind regards,

Mrs Sandra Mckenna
Headteacher
