READING

A reading from the Holy Gospel according to John.

Jesus went to the Mount of Olives. Early in the morning he came again to the temple; all the people came to him, and he sat down and taught them. The scribes and the Pharisees brought a woman who had been caught in adultery, and placing her in the middle they said to him, “Teacher, this woman has been caught in the act of adultery. Now in the law Moses commanded us to stone such women. What do you say about her?”

This they said to test him, that they might have some charge to bring against him.

READING

Jesus bent down and wrote with his finger on the ground. And as they continued to ask him, he stood up and said to them, "Let him without sin among you be the first to throw a stone at her."

And once more he bent down and wrote on the ground.

But when they heard it, they went away, one by one, beginning with the eldest, and Jesus was left alone with the woman standing before him.

READING

Jesus looked up and said to her,
"Woman, where are they? Has no one condemned you?"
She said, "No one, Lord."
And Jesus said, "Neither do I condemn you; go, and do not sin again."

REFLECTION

REFLECTION

Examination of Conscience

We are now going to have a short examination of our own conscience.

Let us think about the pain and suffering Immaculee went through.

Examination of Conscience

Have I listened to Jesus' words of hope, or have I allowed myself to lose heart?

Examination of Conscience

Have I been like the crowd in the Gospel — quick to judge others rather than showing kindness and patience?

Examination of Conscience

Have I been honest with myself and others, or have I hidden the truth when it suited me?

Examination of Conscience

Have I helped others on their journey, especially when they have struggled?

Examination of Conscience

Have I trusted that God can forgive me, or have I carried burdens alone?

Examination of Conscience

Have I tried to bring hope to others through my words, actions, and choices?

BIDDING PRAYERS

Lord, We pray for those who have no homes because of war and conflict.
Help them to find hope during this hard time.
