

Art (Y2) – Aboriginal Art Printing

Prior Knowledge

- Images can be created by creating impressions on blocks and printing onto surfaces (Y1, Autumn Term)
- We can group colours into two main categories: warm colours and cold colours. Warm colours – red, orange and yellow. Cold colours – blue, green and purple (Y1, Spring Term)

Key Knowledge

- Aboriginal art is made by indigenous Australian people.
- It is an expression of people's identity, culture, spirituality and relationship to their country. It tells stories of ceremony and Creation and connects people to ancestors and kin.
- Aboriginal art includes many different kinds of artwork, including dot painting on canvas, bark painting, body painting, batik, wood carving and decorative and wearable arts.
- Australian Aboriginal Art is the oldest, unbroken tradition of art making in the world. Dot painting originated approximately 40 years ago (1971).
- Artists use symbols and metaphors to represent truths, visions, dreams and spirituality.

Compare

Home

Appreciate

Lifestyle

How does Art tell a story?

Key Vocabulary

mural

a painting that is painted onto a wall

graffiti street art

artwork that is created in a public space, usually without permission

bold

having a strong, vivid or clear appearance

Interesting Fact: Aboriginal artists need permission to paint a particular story. They cannot paint a story that does not belong to them through family lineage.

Equipment

Dotting Tools

Polystyrene tile

Print roller