Headteacher – North Kensington
Oxford Gardens Primary School, North Kensington

Salary: Group 2, L15 – L21 (£70,934–£80,062)
Apply by: 10.00am on Friday 17 November 2023
Job to start: From January 2024

The Governing Board is seeking to appoint a Headteacher with the vision, leadership, and energy to build on the successes and achievements of our school. Oxford Gardens is a unique learning community with a strong reputation for inclusivity and is firmly embedded within the local community.

School Vision

We strive to create a culture of excellence, equipping all our young people to become resilient life-long learners, with the creative skills to face life's challenges with innovation and a desire to succeed.

Who we are:

- Oxford Gardens Primary School is a unique learning community in the heart of North Kensington. The school has 224 pupils on role and a strong reputation amongst the diverse community which it serves.
- We are a maintained school with a Nursery and specialist ASD provision.
- Our latest Ofsted inspection in March 2023, graded the school as Good with outstanding elements.

We are seeking a candidate who:

- will oversee the strategic direction, development and performance of the school, to drive excellence, enhance teaching and learning practices and has a commitment to a culture of diversity, inclusion and equality.
- will work with Governors to develop a strategic vision for the school to meet the challenges of a changing funding and demographic in the local area through close and detailed financial management and innovative approaches to income generation.
- has experience of managing or operating within challenging financial circumstances.
- Is innovative, inspirational, and able to motivate our staff and children ensuring they feel valued and supported.
- Has proven leadership, interpersonal and management skills.

- Can continue to build on our strong relationships with our parents, local schools, and the wider community.

We can offer:

- The opportunity to develop professionally and personally.
- A rich and creative curriculum to promote the development of each child.
- An experienced, knowledgeable, and enduring staff team who are dedicated and supportive.
- A committed and loyal Senior Leadership Team.
- A rich and diverse community.
- An experienced Governing Board with a broad range of skills.

This role would suit a strong Deputy Head who is looking to move into a Headteacher role, or an experienced Head looking for a new opportunity within a community-based school.
