

Over the past two weeks, Gremlin class have been learning about the text Handa's Surprise in literacy. We have done amazing writing to do with the story such as describing the animals that take from Handa's basket as well as writing a description of Handa. We have used such amazing adjectives- ask us what they are? These pictures show us re-enacting the story. It has been a lot of fun!