

Gremlin Class

This week we have been working hard in our literacy lessons; learning how to write lists, captions and labels.

We spoke about all the different people in our lives that we call 'family', and had a class discussion around the importance of celebrating our differences. We drew pictures of the people who we call 'family' and wrote labels to show who each person is.

