

Gremlin Class Update

Gremlin class have been working really hard this term on their growth mind-set and have been making brilliant progress with their independent learning, across all areas of the curriculum. We had an amazing day on World Book Day and as you can see the children looked fantastic in their costumes! It was lovely to listen the children read aloud and share information about their character to the class. We can't wait to see what the children achieve next!

