

Unicorn Class

We have had another exciting and adventure filled few weeks in Reception! The children have been practising their pencil grip and writing initial sounds of CVC words. This week the children experimented with different materials, and got to work, designing and constructing their own buildings!

