

We have had a wonderful couple of weeks in Gremlin Class!

In Literacy we are learning all about sentences and punctuation through our core text, The Emperor's New Clothes. To inspire our writing we created King and Queen peg dolls!

We had another fabulous week at Forest School where we designed forest crowns using found materials!

Keep it up Gremlins!