

This half term we are learning about food. We have looked at the different food groups and which foods are healthy and unhealthy. We have had great fun designing and making our own packed lunch boxes and fruit salads; they were delicious!

