

Giant Class had a brilliant time celebrating World Book Day this week!

We dressed up as different book characters, shared our favourite stories and book recommendations, learned MC Grammar's World Book Day rap, took part in a World Book Day Maths investigation and joined a virtual event all about using our imaginations to inspire reading for pleasure.

We had an amazing day and lots of fun!

