

Building a Village

During our Entry Point we met an Anglo-Saxon visitor who had decided to settle down in our class. They needed help creating a village so they could invite the rest of their family to live them. We thought about what a settlement would need and created a checklist:

We planned our village, and gathered natural resources:

Finally, we made our villages:

