

Centaur Class:

Completing our two weeks of focusing on play scripts, the children had to choose one play script and practise performing it. Their play scripts focused on the Museum Scene where the characters are faced with the evil mythical creature, Hydra. The children got into teams to perform their play script using a green screen. Well done everyone, they were fantastic!

