

Centaurs Volume Investigation:

During our maths lesson today we used all of our knowledge about volume to solve a variety of problems. We solved some problems using our conversion skills making sure that if it was in litres and the rest in ml to convert so they were all the same and vice versa. We also solved a cuboid investigation finding a variety of possibilities for a given amount of cubes.

