

Griffin Exit Point

For our exit point, we consolidated our learning of Fascinating Forces and Full Power by researching, directing and recording our own forces show. We used everything we know so far to create posters about our given force, then directed our own mini-documentaries before performing them in front of the class. Take a look at some of our learning below!

