

Year 6 have had a busy start to their final half term at Oxford Gardens. As well as working hard towards their final writing assessments, rehearsals for the production, 'A Little Shop of Horrors' are well under way. Last week, we made our own set design models of how we envisage the set to look. You can see some of the designs below.

The dentists's surgery

Mushnik's shop and Audrey 2

