

Sprite Class

The Spring Term seems to be swimming along for Sprite class. We are thoroughly enjoying learning about evolution and adaptation. We have begun to understand how living things adapt to their environments and can evolve into new species over time.

Take a look at some of the work we have produced:

We are also really enjoying our PE sessions, especially indoor PE, where we have been learning and developing our own Boxercise routines.

