Class: _____

Taking photos and recordings of the children at school is a regular part of school life. We use these images mainly for displays, to celebrate as well as share learning, within children's class books and sometimes in other printed publications. They may also be shared as part of home learning via the school's Seesaw platform, website or the school's Instagram page.

Conditions of use:

- A year after your child has left the school; we will not upload new images of them. However, photographs, which are already in use, may remain on the school website and on social media feeds to show the history of the school.
- We will not use the personal details or full names (first name and surname) of any child or adult.
- For group photos of pupils from different year groups, we will use this photo until one year after the youngest child leaves our school.
- Images published for historic purposes may be kept for an extended period of time to show the history of the school.
- We may include pictures of pupils and teachers that have been drawn by the pupils.
- We will only use images of pupils who are suitably dressed to reduce the risk of such images being used inappropriately.
- Websites and social media platforms can be viewed throughout the world and not just in the UK where UK law applies.
