Raising a concern/complaint

If a candidate (or his/her parent/carer) has a general concern or complaint about the centre's delivery or administration of a qualification he/she is following Parklands High School encourages him/her to try to resolve this informally in the first instance.

Parklands High School welcomes feedback on the services it provides. Should anyone be unhappy with any aspect of the school it is important that the school is informed of this. Taking informal concerns seriously at the early stages reduces the numbers that develop into formal complaints. Many enquiries and concerns can be dealt with by the Curriculum Leader, Head of House or a member of the Senior Leadership team without the need to resort to a formal procedure. If an individual has a concern that they would like to take up with the school they should initially inform a member of staff either in person, via the telephone or in writing

There is not timescale for the resolution at this stage although it would be expected that most issues would be resolved within 10 school days.

If a complaint fails to be resolved informally, the candidate (or his/her parent/carer) is then at liberty to make a formal complaint.

How to make a formal complaint

This stage will commence when

- i. The informal complaint has not been resolved to the satisfaction of the complainant
- ii. The complainant has indicated they wish to go straight to the formal stage
- iii. The school feels the complaint is inappropriate for an informal discussion

- A formal complaint should be in writing by completing a complaints form
- Forms are available from this Policy's Appendix 1

- Completed forms should be returned to the Exams Officer or the Senior Leadership member responsible for Exams
- Forms received will be logged by the centre and acknowledged within 5 calendar days

How a formal complaint is investigated

- The head of centre or Senior Leadership Team member will investigate the complaint and report on the findings and conclusion
- The findings and conclusion will be provided to the complainant within 3 working weeks
