

Issue 17

(14th March 2019)

PARKLANDS HIGH SCHOOL
ABLE AND AMBITIOUS

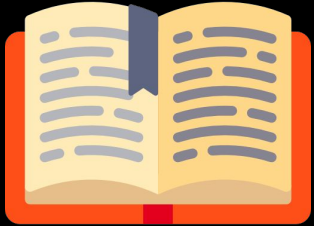

READ, WATCH, DO

Click here to access this week's edition of the series designed to stretch your brain, make you think and challenge you to get out and about.

ENGLISH

PARKLANDS HIGH SCHOOL
ABLE AND AMBITIOUS

Read: After World Book Day last week, this article discusses the importance, pleasure and reasons behind reading

Watch: This video about why we read

Do: Visit Liverpool Central Library to see the famous collection of rare books housed in the Oak Room and see the impressive Picton Reading room which is one of the most beautiful libraries in the world

MATHS

PARKLANDS HIGH SCHOOL
ABLE AND AMBITIOUS

14th March is International Pi day.

Read

Read about the History of Pi. Why do we call it Pi ? Why do we use the symbol π ?

Watch

Pi is the ratio between the circumference and the diameter of a circle.

Watch the clip to find out more

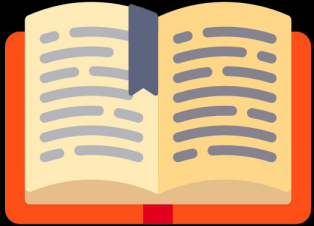

Do

Consider the applications of maths in science by visiting the space dome show

SCIENCE

PARKLANDS HIGH SCHOOL
ABLE AND AMBITIOUS

Read Read this article about a problem taking place at a nuclear power station in Ayrshire and the impact that this has on our National Grid.

Watch Watch this video about the 50th anniversary of the jumbo jet.

Do There is a free special event at the Science & Industry Museum of Manchester around how new technology is shaping our cities on 2nd April 2019. Follow the link to find out more and book your place.

Read this article about a film festival in Berlin - can you summarise the winners?

Watch this video asking German people what they think God looks like - could you answer this question in German?

Do - visit this collection of pictures from German photographers at Manchester Central Library