

LEARN, RESPECT, ASPIRE, ACHIEVE

Achievement News

A celebration of academic achievement!

Congratulations to all the shortlisted poets in the English House Competition. There were some excellent writing skills on display. Shortlisted poets: Sophia Fenton, Charlie Kemp, Isobel Hancock, Charlie Westwell, Alannah Hatton, Sweden Form, Joshua Cowling, Eliza Grime, Emily Clitherow, Courtney Dehaan, Ellie Robinson.

Well done to Isobel Blunt, Lénè Clegg, Sarah Glen, Ella Lawman, Megan Molloy, Mia Pilkington, Ella Todd for consistently high spelling test results in English.

Bradley Thompson-Hughes. Fantastic history student who has recently produced extra research on William of Normandy that he produced in his own time in addition to his normal homework. Well done Bradley!

A huge well done to every member of 9CAS Spanish who all did fantastically in their latest writing assessment about a holiday to Barcelona. It is an absolute pleasure to see how much effort and thought you all put in to your Spanish learning each and every week. Mr Stalker.

A super massive well done all my Year 7 Geographers
- 7YLL, 7XAO, 7XAO, 7XVB & 7YAO for their effort and commitment on their volcano projects which have been very successful and tasty!!!

Well done to Ben Weaver, Matthew Rankine, Jordyn Lilley and Shea Duckworth on their Geography Paper 1 mock exam!

Victoria Edge demonstrated her method for solving equations before circulating the class supporting others. Lene Clegg completed a fabulous homework task. Chloe Lancaster making excellent progress through solving equations and rearranging formulae.

Well done to Kirsty Makinson in SAM for her great performance in the GCSE PE end of topic tests!

Zac Climpson had a fantastic attempt at proving the maximum number of sides a polygon could have. A question of his own creation. Brilliant! Also well done to Rafferty Boardman-Owen for a much improved attitude and insightful questions.

Lewis Thompson (Year 10) has been making excellent progress and achieving really well in Geography. I'm really delighted with him. Mrs Eastham 7YLL top spellers this week: Martha Wiggans (10/10 on both her spellings and definitions), Amber Ashcroft, Matthew Todd and Hannah Williams.

Lia Gray has achieved over 600% of her Accelerated Reader target for this term! This is the highest score I have ever seen - well done!

8YLL - Mature responses to their first Shakespeare assessment this year: Rebecca Walker, Timothy Bidlake-Corser, Paige Caton, Mariam Hassouna, Thomas Woodcock, Faith Wiggans, Abbie Stewart, Susannah Reynolds and Olivia Salisbury.

Well done to Andrew Johnson, Evie Roby and Eadie Gosling, who are the top 3 students in school for EPraise points.

Well done to Daniel White, Libby Keating and Sophie Bowden in 9YMP who have shown true resilience in their most recent maths topic of algebra.

Well done to Hani Ahmed, Chloe Elston, Logan Clitheroe, Caitlin Haydock, Maddy Jolly, Libby Keating, Daniel White and Blake Wilson who are averaging above their targets since starting their GCSE science.

The following Computer Science students have got themselves on the speed code challenge leaderboard this term, well done! 1st Olly Partridge, 2nd Sarah Gur, 3rd, Matthew Henderson and 4th Ben Goodhew.

Geography - Year 10 end of unit assessment - really high scores: Stacey Mortimer, Adam Scott, Milly Corners, Isabelle Curtis, Hui Hua, Jack Lewis, Rafferty Boardman-Owen and Oliver Woods.

Congratulations to Helen Masterson who is currently our highest GCSEPod user this academic year. Congratulations also to Paige Simm and Hayleigh Carr who are the runners up and to Alice Kirkham and Mya Saumtally who are our December champions.

Isabelle Curtis achieved a Merit in Grade 6 Piano Exam.

Robyn Hartshorn achieved a Merit at Grade 5 by the Trinity London College. Mr Willsher