

Subject	DRAMA	Year Group	10
	Term/Unit 1	Term/Unit 2	Term/Unit 3	Term/Unit 4	Term/Unit 5	Term/Unit 6
Scheme title	Texts in practice	Devising from stimuli	Devising from stimuli	Devising from stimuli	Set texts	Technical theatre
Purpose of scheme	To get a baseline of performance ability and to explore a new text	To develop devising skills	To develop devising skills	To develop devising skills	To introduce the play 'Blood brothers' and the written exam	To allow pupils to explore the way technical theatre can contribute meaning to the audience
Knowledge in sequence	Role development	How to select and combine appropriate skills when creating your own work.	How to select and combine appropriate skills when creating your own work.	How to select and combine appropriate skills when creating your own work.	How to use the keywords from KS3 to write about Drama skills	How to use a variety of technical element in production
Skills	Performance	Research, planning (plus re-cap of a range of skills from previous units)	Research, planning (plus re-cap of a range of skills from previous units)	Research, planning (plus re-cap of a range of skills from previous units)	Acting, interpreting a role	Technical skills, including, lights, sound, costume & set design
Key words	Stanislavski, artistic intentions	Stimulus	Stimulus	Stimulus	Intentions	Colour, position, focus, gobo, fade, diagetic, fit, material, truck, flat, fly
End point	Selecting and preparing an extract to rehearse and perform	Creation of a performance piece and a log detailing the decision making process	Creation of a performance piece and a log detailing the decision making process	Creation of a performance piece and a log detailing the decision making process	To be able to write coherently about their acting choices	To be able to use basic technical elements to enhance their own performances and to appreciate how and why a professional company may use them
Assessment Methods	Performance & statement of artistic intention	Log notes & peer assessment	Log notes & peer assessment	Final performance & log	Mock written exam	Mock written exam